Second Presbyterian Church is a multicultural, multi-generational congregation. Our worship is bilingual, with liturgy and music in both Spanish and English, and an English language sermon.

Mission Statement of Second Presbyterian Church

Second Presbyterian Church is a vital worshipping community of faith guided by the good news proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Our multigenerational, multicultural, and bilingual community exemplifies the diversity of God's creation unified by God's hope and love. Our ongoing mission is to cultivate that hope and love for all generations by living and sharing it with the world.

“Happy Anniversary”

“Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.” Matthew 7: 7-8

Queridos hermanos y hermana,

When we think about pounding on a door on October 31st, our first thought is “Trick or Treat.” But this upcoming October 31st, we will celebrate some pretty voracious door-banging that went on five-hundred years ago, that had nothing to do with Halloween. For it was then, that Martin Luther nailed his 95-theses to the castle door at the church at Wittenberg. You may recall that they were 95, often scathing critiques of the church at the time. It is that day and that event, that theologians and historians peg as the beginning of the Protestant Reformation. In order to acknowledge the significant anniversary, this October, we will have a four-week sermon series engaging the Protestant Reformation.

The Reformation can be understood through various lenses, for example: theologically, historically, and socially. Even for those who know little about the “who,” “what,” “when,” “where,” “why,” and “how,” we know that it is a critical part of Presbyterian as well as wider-church history. As part of the “Reformed tradition,” our identity is deeply informed by the Reformation reality. We share in a legacy of things like: freedom of conscience, confidence to listen how the Spirit may call us in a new direction, and a willingness to be a self-aware group of the faithful—willing to question. That legacy is important to acknowledge and celebrate, and this month will be an opportunity to learn more about that past and its role in the present. It will be a fundamental reminder to keep on knocking at the doors of faith, only to discover more and more the power and love of God and how it can shape our faith!

Grace & Peace,
Roberto

*DISPUTATION OF DOCTOR MARTIN LUTHER ON THE POWER AND EFFICACY OF INDULGENCES
OCTOBER 31, 1517*

OUT of love for the truth and the desire to bring it to light, the following propositions will be discussed at Wittenberg, under the presidency of the Reverend Father Martin Luther, Master of Arts and of Sacred Theology, and Lecturer in Ordinary on the same at that place. Wherefore he requests that those who are unable to be present and debate orally with us, may do so by letter.

In the Name our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

38. Nevertheless, the remission and participation [in the blessings of the Church] which are granted by the pope are in no way to be despised, for they are, as I have said, the declaration of divine remission.

39. It is most difficult, even for the very keenest theologians, at one and the same time to commend to the people the abundance of pardons and [the need of] true contrition.

40. True contrition seeks and loves penalties, but liberal pardons only relax penalties and cause them to be hated, or at least, furnish an occasion [for hating them].

41. Apostolic pardons are to be preached with caution, lest the people may falsely think them preferable to other good works of love.

42. Christians are to be taught that the pope does not intend the buying of pardons to be compared in any way to works of mercy.

43. Christians are to be taught that he who gives to the poor or lends to the needy does a better work than buying pardons;

44. Because love grows by works of love, and man becomes better; but by pardons man does not grow better, only more free from penalty.

45. Christians are to be taught that he who sees a man in need, and passes him by, and gives [his money] for pardons, purchases not the indulgences of the pope, but the indignation of God.

46. Christians are to be taught that unless they have more than they need, they are bound to keep back what is necessary for their own families, and by no means to squander it on pardons.

47. Christians are to be taught that the buying of pardons is a matter of free will, and not of commandment.

48. Christians are to be taught that the pope, in granting pardons, needs, and therefore desires, their devout prayer for him more than the money they bring.

49. Christians are to be taught that the pope's pardons are useful, if they do not put their trust in them; but altogether harmful, if through them they lose their fear of God.

50. Christians are to be taught that if the pope knew the exactions of the pardon-preachers, he would rather that St. Peter's church should go to ashes, than that it should be built up with the skin, flesh and bones of his sheep.

51. Christians are to be taught that it would be the pope's wish, as it is his duty, to give of his own money to very many of those from whom certain hawkers of pardons cajole money, even though the church of St. Peter might have to be sold.

52. The assurance of salvation by letters of pardon is vain, even though the commissary, nay, even though the pope himself, were to stake his soul upon it.

53. They are enemies of Christ and of the pope, who bid the Word of God be altogether silent in some Churches, in order that pardons may be preached in others.

54. Injury is done the Word of God when, in the same sermon, an equal or a longer time is spent on pardons than on this Word.

55. It must be the intention of the pope that if pardons, which are a very small thing, are celebrated with one bell, with single processions and ceremonies, then the Gospel, which is the very greatest thing, should be preached with a hundred bells, a hundred processions, a hundred ceremonies.

56. The "treasures of the Church," out of which the pope grants indulgences, are not sufficiently named or known among the people of Christ.

57. That they are not temporal treasures is certainly evident, for many of the vendors do not pour out such treasures so easily, but only gather them.

58. Nor are they the merits of Christ and the Saints, for even without the pope, these always work grace for the inner man, and the cross, death, and hell for the outward man.

59. St. Lawrence said that the treasures of the Church were the Church's poor, but he spoke according to the usage of the word in his own time.

60. Without rashness we say that the keys of the Church, given by Christ's merit, are that treasure;

61. For it is clear that for the remission of penalties and of reserved cases, the power of the pope is of itself sufficient.

62. The true treasure of the Church is the Most Holy Gospel of the glory and the grace of God. (To Be Continued)

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY AND PEACE AND GLOBAL WITNESS OFFERING

On Sunday, October 1st, Second Church, along with several Christian denominations, will observe World Communion Sunday (see article in this issue at top of page 4). This day serves as a reminder of our Christian unity as we engage in prayer for one another; share in the breaking of the bread and wine, and commit ourselves to deepen the commitment to peace.

Our commitment to work for peace extends beyond our neighborhoods to the world around us. One way that we can do this is by giving to the Peace and Global Witness Offering on October 1st or anytime throughout the month. Our gifts will help bring peace in troubled places such as South Sudan as they deal with ethnic fighting that has pushed thousands of people into refugee camps across the border into Uganda. Among the ministries that are enabled by the “Peace Offering” is the funding of a resource center for civil leadership in the Sudan, which assists people in refugee settlements, and helps to provide clean, safe drinking water to those who need it. 25% of the offering remains with the local church to support efforts of peace and reconciliation in our community. Give prayerfully and generously.

PRESBYTERIAN DISASTER ASSISTANCE (PDA)

<https://pda.pcusa.org>

We already contribute to the PDA thru the “One Great Hour of Sharing” (OGHS) offering. 32% of the OGHS offering goes to the PDA.

When you give directly to the PDA, you can designate your gift to a disaster/relief effort of your choice by designating the Disaster Response “DR” project you would like to support. At the end of September, PDA efforts included: Afghanistan, Atlantic Regional Hurricanes, Blanket Fund, Church Support, CWS Gift of the Heart Kits, Democratic Republic of Congo, Food Security (International) - Foods Resource Bank (FRB), Gun Violence/Public Violence, Haiti Relief, Hurricane Matthew, Iraq, Kenya, Lebanon/Syria, Malawi and Southern Africa, Middle East, Moringa Tree, Nepal, Pastoral Support and Caregiving, Philippines, Refugee Emergencies (in the U.S.A.), Refugee and IDP Programs (International), South Sudan, Superstorm Sandy, U.S. Flooding, U.S. Hurricanes, and U.S. Wildfires.

CHILDREN'S MUSIC IS BACK!!

Children's Music is back! Did you know it had gone anywhere? Well, yes. Second Presbyterian hosted and employed two college students from the UNM Children's Music program to work with our children in the years 2015 and 2016. In 2017, however, we were not so fortunate, and we relied on CE elder Anita Abeyta to provide musical leadership during the Sunday School hour. While Anita certainly made that happen, she is grateful to learn that the Julia Church Hoffman, Director of UNM Music Prep School, is willing to teach a 9 week block of instruction to our 1st through 5th graders (older exceptions by permission).

Julia Church Hoffman will be somewhat familiar to several of you, as she has staffed the youngest participants in the Summer Choir Camps at 1st Presbyterian. Her special expertise is teaching pre-school and elementary music. (In that capacity at UNM, she was the person who taught/supervised our previous college music staff in their academic work with children's music.)

October 8 through December 17 (with two exceptions), 1st through 5th graders will meet with her from 11:45 to 12:30. Rehearsals will include singing games, vocal and rhythm, movement and instruments, and also prepare three anthems to be presented in worship.

Given her UNM responsibilities, Julia's agreement to provide this program to Second Presbyterian is an incredible gift to us—and has been made possible through her good grace—and aided by a financial gift from a member of the congregation.

We hope Julia will want to continue in 2018!—and that our stewardship will assist in making that happen.

NOW—WHAT ABOUT OUR YOUNGEST SINGERS?

Well, our good fortune has Debi Eisenhour, experienced choral musician and pre-school music teacher at Shepherd of the Valley Pre-school, available to spend a block of time with preschoolers on the same schedule as above. This will allow younger siblings and our youngest children to have a musical experience on the same schedule as elementary kids. Money for Deb is available through the regular gifting of a member.

EXPLOSION IN THE ADULT CHOIR

We are so excited and appreciative that the Adult Choir has grown suddenly by at least 25% --with returning and new folks:

we are so pleased to see Dolores Romero, Dorothy Romero, and Karin Leavitt return;

we have added new members Sarah Smith and Joey Candelaria (wife Amanda joined this summer), and Iris Sandoval (who previously sang with the youth choir ☺); two high school students, Annika Reid and Isaac Ploof, have joined to contribute their musical skills and great attitudes.

WHAT A GIFT! The choir is clearly “ever reforming”—and we will be doing a “brand new thing” with the gifts these folks—AND THE REGULARS—are bringing to worship.

In addition, many thanks to Art Trujillo, Bob Deuble, and the Reverend Rob Woodruff, who have been willing to be co-opted for the men's section while several of the regulars dealt with family commitments.

INSTRUMENTAL GROUP PLANNED

We are excited about the prospect of putting together an ensemble of instrumentalists. Musicians all are mid and high school students; please notify Karmen if you're interested. Initial leadership will be provided by Joy Bohning, often seen in worship as a guest flutist. Joy's background is as a band leader in the public schools, but she is extraordinarily gifted in her ability to create ensembles of diverse instrumentalists. Let's “PUSH HER SKILLS”! ☺
