Second Presbyterian Church is a multicultural, multi-generational congregation. Our worship is bilingual, with liturgy and music in both Spanish and English, and an English language sermon.

Mission Statement of Second Presbyterian Church

Second Presbyterian Church is a vital worshipping community of faith guided by the good news proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Our multigenerational, multicultural, and bilingual community exemplifies the diversity of God's creation unified by God's hope and love. Our ongoing mission is to cultivate that hope and love for all generations by living and sharing it with the world.

The Reverend Doctor Robert B Woodruff

Head of Staff of Second Presbyterian Church.

“Rooted to Grow”

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

As we enter the November stewardship season, know that we will engage this season through the metaphor of plants. Garden imagery is appropriate for the season. In scripture, gardens are used to express God’s creative, redemptive, and sustaining goodness. Think of the garden of Eden (Genesis 2), the garden foreshadowing resurrection next to Jesus’ tomb (John 19), and the eternal imagery of Eden restored in the new heaven and new earth (Revelation 22). Another reason the metaphor of plants is applicable is the correlation between church tithes and the first fruits of the harvest. When we make our pledges on Dedication Sunday (November 19) for the upcoming year’s budget, it is somewhat analogous to the biblical practice of bringing the first fruits of the harvest as an offering of sacrifice and gratitude.

This year, our stewardship committee selected the plant-based stewardship theme: “Rooted to Grow.” When a plant is healthy and flourishing, it means it has a strong root system. Roots are essential to the well-being of a plant. They (1) absorb water and nutrients, they (2) provide stability—anchoring and supporting a plant. Roots also (3) can store food and nutrients for future use, and (4) roots can aid in the growth and even reproduction of the plant.

The committee acknowledged the strong “root system,” of Second Church. It also recognizes the different types of new flowering growth our community experiences. There is a correlation. With strong roots, more sustained growth is possible. As we move into our stewardship season and consider our pledges of time, talents, and treasures for the coming year, let us be mindful of how our giving, through generosity and gratitude, can bolster our roots and help us grow. We are in a position on our church’s journey to further strengthen our root system and flowering growth—thanks be to God! Such growth is not simply for the sake of growing. But when a church flourishes as a healthy plant, God uses it in so many ways. It can provide shade, bear fruit, and even regenerate.

Grace & Peace, Roberto

DISPUTATION OF DOCTOR MARTIN LUTHER ON THE POWER AND EFFICACY OF INDULGENCES OCTOBER 31, 1517

OUT of love for the truth and the desire to bring it to light, the following propositions will be discussed at Wittenberg, under the presidency of the Reverend Father Martin Luther, Master of Arts and of Sacred Theology, and Lecturer in Ordinary on the same at that place. Wherefore he requests that those who are unable to be present and debate orally with us, may do so by letter.

In the Name our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

63. But this treasure is naturally most odious, for it makes the first to be last.

64. On the other hand, the treasure of indulgences is naturally most acceptable, for it makes the last to be first.

65. Therefore the treasures of the Gospel are nets with which they formerly were wont to fish for men of riches.

66. The treasures of the indulgences are nets with which they now fish for the riches of men.

67. The indulgences which the preachers cry as the "greatest graces" are known to be truly such, in so far as they promote gain.

68. Yet they are in truth the very smallest graces compared with the grace of God and the piety of the Cross. 69. Bishops and curates are bound to admit the commissaries of apostolic pardons, with all reverence.

70. But still more are they bound to strain all their eyes and attend with all their ears, lest these men preach their own dreams instead of the commission of the pope.

71. He who speaks against the truth of apostolic pardons, let him be anathema and accursed!

72. But he who guards against the lust and license of the pardon-preachers, let him be blessed!

73. The pope justly thunders against those who, by any art, contrive the injury of the traffic in pardons.

74. But much more does he intend to thunder against those who use the pretext of pardons to contrive the injury, of holy love and truth.

75. To think the papal pardons so great that they could absolve a man even if he had committed an impossible sin and violated the Mother of God — this is madness.

76. We say, on the contrary, that the papal pardons are not able to remove the very least of venial sins, so far as its guilt is concerned.

77. It is said that even St. Peter, if he were now Pope, could not bestow greater graces; this is blasphemy against St. Peter and against the pope.

78. We say, on the contrary, that even the present pope, and any pope at all, has greater graces at his disposal; to wit, the Gospel, powers, gifts of healing, etc., as it is written in I. Corinthians xii.

79. To say that the cross, emblazoned with the papal arms, which is set up [by the preachers of indulgences], is of equal worth with the Cross of Christ, is blasphemy.

80. The bishops, curates and theologians who allow such talk to be spread among the people, will have an account to render.

81. This unbridled preaching of pardons makes it no easy matter, even for learned men, to rescue the reverence due to the pope from slander, or even from the shrewd questionings of the laity.

82. To wit:—"Why does not the pope empty purgatory, for the sake of holy love and of the dire need of the souls that are there, if he redeems an infinite number of souls for the sake of miserable money with which to build a Church? The former reasons would be most just; the latter is most trivial."

83. Again:—"Why are mortuary and anniversary masses for the dead continued, and why does he not return or permit the withdrawal of the endowments founded on their behalf, since it is wrong to pray for the redeemed?"

84. Again:—"What is this new piety of God and the pope, that for money they allow a man who is impious and their enemy to buy out of purgatory the pious soul of a friend of God, and do not rather, because of that pious and beloved soul's own need, free it for pure love's sake?"

85. Again:—"Why are the penitential canons, long since in actual fact and through disuse abrogated and dead, now satisfied by the granting of indulgences, as though they were still alive and in force?"

86. Again:—"Why does not the pope, whose wealth is to-day greater than the riches of the richest, build just this one church of St. Peter with his own money, rather than with the money of poor believers?"

87. Again:—"What is it that the pope remits, and what participation does he grant to those who, by perfect contrition, have a right to full remission and participation?"

88. Again:—"What greater blessing could come to the Church than if the pope were to do a hundred times a day what he now does once, and bestow on every believer these remissions and participations?"

89. "Since the pope, by his pardons, seeks the salvation of souls rather than money, why does he suspend the indulgences and pardons granted heretofore, since these have equal efficacy?"

- 90. To repress these arguments and scruples of the laity by force alone, and not to resolve them by giving reasons, is to expose the Church and the pope to the ridicule of their enemies, and to make Christians unhappy.
- 91. If, therefore, pardons were preached according to the spirit and mind of the pope, all these doubts would be readily resolved; nay, they would not exist.
- 92. Away, then, with all those prophets who say to the people of Christ, "Peace, peace," and there is no peace!
- 93. Blessed be all those prophets who say to the people of Christ, "Cross, cross," and there is no cross!
- 94. Christians are to be exhorted that they be diligent in following Christ, their Head, through penalties, deaths, and hell;
- 95. And thus be confident of entering into heaven rather through many tribulations, than through the assurance of peace.

The Three Solas

The arrangements on the front walls of the sanctuary are three interlocking circles representing the Trinity and are a symbol of the Reformation known as the Three Solas. These solas are specified as: scripture over tradition, faith over works, and grace over merit, each intended to represent an important distinction compared with Catholic doctrine. Sola fide, or "faith alone", asserts that good works are not a means or requisite for salvation. Sola fide is the teaching that justification (interpreted in the Lutheran and Reformed theologies as "being declared just by God") is received by faith alone, without any need for good works on the part of the individual. In classical Lutheran and Reformed theologies, good works are seen to be evidence of saving faith, but the good works themselves do not determine salvation.

Sola gratia, or "only grace", specifically excludes the merit done by a person as part of achieving salvation. Sola gratia is the teaching that salvation comes by divine grace or "unmerited favor" only, not as something merited by the sinner. This means that salvation is an unearned gift from God.

Sola Scriptura, or "scripture alone" is upheld by Lutheran and Reformed theologies and asserts that scripture must govern church traditions and interpretations which are themselves held to be subject to scripture. Sola Scriptura asserts that the Bible can and is to be interpreted through itself, with one area of Scripture being useful for interpreting others.

YOUTH

The November dates for sessions with Shane Austin are November 12 and the 19. We begin by serving lunch at 12:30. Then the session begins at 1:00pm and goes for 1 hour. If anyone needs transportation home, please let Susie or Chang know and we can arrange that - easy peasy! Our last session will be on December 10.

If your Youth misses a session, please know that he or she will benefit greatly by attending the remaining sessions in November and December. Shane does a marvelous job in offering tools to center oneself, becoming aware of God's presence, thus, resulting in better decision making. His talks are based on The Beatitudes (which he spells Beattitudes to bring attention to the advantage of having a good attitude for life).

We are impressed with Shane and welcome the life affirming insights and motivation he offers our Youth! Please encourage your Youth to give Shane a try!!

PRESBYTERIAN DISASTER ASSISTANCE (PDA)

<https://pda.pcusa.org>

We already contribute to the PDA thru the “One Great Hour of Sharing” (OGHS) offering. 32% of the OGHS offering goes to the PDA.

When you give directly to the PDA, you can designate your gift to a disaster/relief effort of your choice by designating the Disaster Response “DR” project you would like to support. At the end of September, PDA efforts included: Afghanistan, Atlantic Regional Hurricanes, Blanket Fund, Church Support, CWS Gift of the Heart Kits, Democratic Republic of Congo, Food Security (International) - Foods Resource Bank (FRB), Gun Violence/Public Violence, Haiti Relief, Hurricane Matthew, Iraq, Kenya, Lebanon/Syria, Malawi and Southern Africa, Middle East, Moringa Tree, Nepal, Pastoral Support and Caregiving, Philippines, Refugee Emergencies (in the U.S.A.), Refugee and IDP Programs (International), South Sudan, Superstorm Sandy, U.S. Flooding, U.S. Hurricanes, and U.S. Wildfires.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN

Presbyterian Men, and guests, visited 5 different Presbyterian church communities in 2017: Smith Memorial in Truchas; El Buen Pastor in Chimayó, Emmanuel in Peñasco, Embudo in Dixon; and San Rafael in Mogote, CO.

We meet Saturday, October 28th, to plan for 2018. We hope to visit 10 rural church communities in 2018, including those we visited in 2017. We plan to visit one a month from February through November, on the second or third week of the month.

Watch this space, and the church calendar, for our schedule. All are invited!

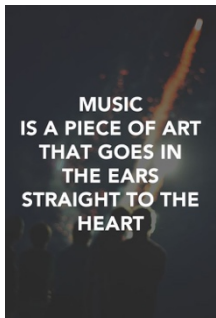

WORSHIP

All Saints Sunday - Bring Photos for Display

On November 5th we will be observing All Saints Day. We invite you to bring photographs of loved ones who have gone before us. These photographs will be placed on tables in the chancel during the Worship Service. You may take them home after the Worship Service.

MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC Music for “all children and youth” is up and running. Many wonderful sounds can be heard most Sundays, 11:45am to 12:30pm. This programmatic offering began on October 6 and will continue through December 19 — and each group is scheduled to contribute their music to worship two or three times before the end of 2017.

Pre-school music rehearses in the Sunday School area of the J. I. Candelaria wing, under the direction of Debi Eisenhour.

Elementary choral music rehearses in the “big room” of the J. I. Candelaria wing, under the direction of Julia Church Hoffman.

Mid-high/high school instrumentalists rehearse in the Adult Choir room (fellowship hall), under the direction of Joy Bohning.

Mid-high/high school choir rehearses in the sanctuary, under the direction of Karmen Van Dyke.

If your child, grandchild, or neighbor is interested in an extraordinary musical opportunity, come and give it a try. Need additional information? Contact Karmen Van Dyke 505-298-0702 or kvd@swcp.com.

Membership

This month we were honored to recognize four members for their continued membership at Second for 50 years or longer. The four members are Dorothy Romero, Adolf and Jessie McCoy, and Aurelia Jimenez. They were given handcrafted silver crosses with three small turquoise stones. The crosses were by a Santo Domingo artist. We are a grateful congregation for these faithful members!

A special thanks to Abel McBride who helped us obtain the beautiful crosses given to these special four!

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming a new member of Second, please call Rob or Beverly at church, 242-8005, or Pat Gilberto at 836-7116.

Recent Session Actions

In September, Session VOTED to APPROVE:

- Worship and Music contracting with individuals to provide music for pre-school and grades 1 thru 5;
- to provide the facility for the Puerto Rico benefit concerts, and to be Fiscal Agent for the events;
- strengthen clauses in the Family Promise contract for janitorial services for the contracted space;
- regular reports from Committees.

In October, Session heard and approved regular reports from Committees.

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

By Ruth Montoya

Roots to Grow is the theme of the upcoming Stewardship Campaign which was launched on Sunday, October 24th with a "Moment for Mission" testimony given by one of our young members, Diego Chavez. Three other such "testimonials" will follow on subsequent Sundays leading up to Dedication Sunday, November 19. Each will share a personal story about the impact of God's presence in their lives and how they have been led to share the bounty of God's grace and gifts in with the church and beyond. You will be receiving information related to the Campaign in early November.

FYI: Per Capita:

In response to inquiries regarding Per Capita (blue envelopes found in your pew boxes), it is the set amount of money per member that congregations pay to the larger Presbyterian Church (USA). Every Presbyterian shares in the benefit of the church's system of government by sharing in the expenses associated with the function of that system. Congregations through our Sessions pay an annual amount of money per church member; this is a combined request from our Presbytery, Synod and General Assembly based on their respective budgets. The per capita rate is set every two years. A presbytery's per capita rate depends on its geographical location and size, its mission needs, and the needs of the respective synod.

THE SYNOD OF THE SOUTHWEST

By Ruth Montoya

Our Presbytery of Santa Fe is one of three other presbyteries that comprise the two-state Synod of the Southwest (New Mexico and Arizona). They are: Sierra Blanca, Grand Canyon and DeCristo. The Executive Synod Executive and Stated Clerk is Conrad Rocha, who shares church membership with La Mesa and 2nd Church.

The Synod held its annual meeting in Phoenix, Arizona on September 6 and 7th. Solema Newton was recently elected to serve as a Commissioner from our Presbytery. Second Church is well represented at both the Presbytery and Synod level. Additionally, at the 2018 meeting of the General Assembly in St Louis this summer, Nicole Castellano has been elected to serve as the Young Adult Advisory Delegate.

PUERTO RICO BENEFIT CONCERTS

$17,000 was raised through the concert and the Salsa Extravaganza !!

On Friday, October 6, Second Presbyterian hosted a concert in our sanctuary to benefit people harmed by Hurricane Maria on Puerto Rico. The event was as moving as it was musically fulfilling as we listened to music provided by Maestro Guillermo Figueroa, Principal Music Director of the Santa Fe Symphony; Dr. Mariano Morales, keyboard; Dr. Marcos Cavalcante, guitar; Ruth Silva-Hernandez, voice; De Profundis, men's acapella choir under the direction of David Poole; and Redobles-Los Pleneros de la 21, a Puerto Rican group in town for a performance at the National Hispanic Cultural Center.

On October 15, a Salsa Extravaganza was held at Second Pres, featuring local musical groups.

The planning committee, comprising Ruth Silva, Karmen Van Dyke, Gloria Mirabal, and Rev. Robert Woodruff, is working with Edwin Gonzales, Presbyter of the Presbytery of San Juan, to determine the best way to provide direct assistance. Praise the Lord, and thanks to all who supported these efforts!

MILESTONES – God Bless You!

Demographics collection for the 2017 Statistical Report and a Church Management System!

LiveWire has begun testing a demographics questionnaire with the Elders and Deacons, in preparation for asking all members and friends of Second to complete the form. Collected information will be used to prepare the 2017 Statistical Report of Second Presbyterian Church to the PCUSA, and to populate a confidential Church Management Information System for Second.

Completion of the questionnaire will be optional. We need the information to accurately report our church Statistics to PCUSA, so that they, and your Pastors, Elders, and Deacons, can make better decisions to meet the spiritual needs of all who call Second home.

All fields on the questionnaire will be optional, and there is space to write in choices that are not listed.
