“Give it Up!”

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

This year’s Lenten season is a bit unusual in that it is book ended by non-religious holidays. Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, falls on February 14th, Valentine’s Day. And Easter, which signifies the end of Lent, falls on April 1st, April Fool’s Day. It is also somewhat unusual that Lent begins rather early, as it will only start earlier twice, in the next ten years. But as to the substance of Lent, nothing changes. The season is meant for preparation leading up to Easter. It is a spiritual journey that leads to resurrection. By preparing for Easter, we more readily prepare ourselves to better embrace the depth of God’s death-defying love. For this coming season, I extend two invitations for your consideration.

First, I invite you to attend our Ash Wednesday service at 7:00pm, in the sanctuary. In case you have not joined us at this service in recent years, we worship together with our friends from First Presbyterian. And though I may be biased, the service is absolutely beautiful. Taizé music, accompanied by a quartet, joint choirs with us and First Church, our children’s choir, a meditation about the season, the ancient rite of ash imposition, and communion, are all part of the sacred worship. If you are unable to come that evening, but wish to attend an Ash Wednesday service, First Presbyterian Church hosts a noon service in their chapel that I participate in and to which we are all invited.

The other invitation centers around the religious ritual of the season. Varying perspectives persist about whether or not it is helpful to give something up like chocolate, alcohol, or fast food. Or conversely taking something on like volunteering time, adopting a new spiritual practice, or initiating a new exercise or healthy eating practice. Giving something up or taking something on is not really that different as giving something up implies taking on something new and vice versa, but I digress. This season, I encourage you to take some time before Ash Wednesday for deep, honest reflection and identifying something in your life that is spiritually debilitating. And then, making a plan to give something up and take something on. I pledge to do the same.

Grace & Peace,
Roberto

MLK JR SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED TO *Byamungu Sangala Fazili

Martha Powers, Anna and Jack Torres, Lorraine Romero, and Ray and Concha Brown attended the Twenty-Eighth Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Multicultural Celebration at Congregation Albert on January 15, 2018. The recipient of the $1,000 scholarship donation from Second Presbyterian Church is Byamungu Sangala Fazili of Del Norte High School. Byamungu is a native of the Congo. He and his family have been in Albuquerque for two years. He plans to attend the University of New Mexico to earn a degree in Pharmaceutical Sciences and become a pharmacist. He lives with his parents and five younger sisters. He had two older brothers who died during their stay in a refugee camp where they did not receive medical attention. He said that is the reason he wants to be in the medical field: to help people.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT BIBLE STUDY

By Rev. Kay Huggins

The 9:00 am Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study meets in the Conference Room of the Candelaria Wing. This group has been experimenting with shared leadership since the fall. The results are amazing; individuals who have led the class report a deeper experience of the text by preparing for and guiding the class discussion. Class members report an increased interest in personal study and prayerful consideration of lesson articles and assigned texts. The combination of prepared leaders and prepared students creates a dynamic class. This may be the perfect “New Year’s Resolution” – Join the Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study!

The Present Word curriculum booklets are available each Sunday; take one home for personal study and preparation. In January the general theme of the Winter Quarter, Faith in Action, explores four passages from the Book of Daniel as a means of probing the characteristics of a “Living Faith.” Then, in February, the quarter concludes with an examination of faithful practices drawn from early church writing: James, Acts and I Timothy.

Come occasionally or regularly. Expect lively conversation and challenging questions. Share your personal insights and struggles to understand. Grow in your faith and in your Biblical knowledge. Questions? Talk with Victor Suazo, Olga Joyce, Toby Montoya, or Kay Huggins.

WEDNESDAY 11:00AM BIBLE STUDY

By Rev. Kay Huggins

The Wednesday Bible Study (11:00am-Noon) has undertaken a serious task: to carefully study Genesis over four months. We are guided by the scholarship of Walter Brueggemann who frames the entire Book as an examination of Call. During January, we studied “The Sovereign Call of God” by engaging the familiar stories of creation, Adam and Eve’s family, Noah and the Tower of Babel. During the month of January, the material sensitized us to the patience of God and the human inclination to live without reference to God, as well as posing persistent questions of anger and heartbreak (within God) and evil and mastery over sin (on the part of humans).

In February, we begin a new encounter with call, as Abram responds to a life-long journey with God. This new material will bring us face to face with new questions as we consider the significance of “A Call Embraced.” You are welcome to join us for the next month, for the remainder of the study, or for a class whenever you are able. Here is the schedule for February:

An Embraced Call of God

02/07: Gen 12-14

02/14: Gen 15-18:15

02/21: Gen 18:16-21:34

02/28: Gen 22-25

ASH WEDNESDAY AND LENT FOR US

By Karmen Van Dyke

Liturgical Glossary

ASH WEDNESDAY, February 14 this year, begins Lent 2018. Ash Wednesday historically focuses on our mortality. The ashes placed on one's head or hand, reflects funeral liturgy: "ashes to ashes" and "dust to dust". Lent ends with the ultimate expression of LIFE, Easter resurrection.

LENT is the time between Ash Wednesday and Easter. It is 46 days long, which represents the 40 days Jesus spent in the wilderness (before beginning his trip to the cross), plus the Sundays which separate 40 week days.

LENT HISTORICALLY: Lent is a time when we prepare for Easter by observing a period of fasting, repentance, and spiritual discipline.

LENT FOR PRESBYTERIANS: Traditionally Presbyterians "give" rather than "give up". The idea of giving up Coke, or some bad habit, has, for many Protestants, been replaced by "giving" more time to good works, or setting aside money for One Great Hour of Sharing. However, many Christians find a way to experience both choosing a spiritual discipline and some specific new opportunity to "give".

ASH WEDNESDAY WORSHIP
7:00pm February 14

Second Presbyterian and First Presbyterian will once again jointly observe Ash Wednesday with worship centered on scripture and Taize' chants. The service will begin with an organ prelude by Dr. James Yeager, and Rev. Matthew Miller will provide reflection on a Lenten text. The service will include the Imposition of Ashes and the Lord's Table. The combined adult choir will present a setting of Psalm 51, and our children's choir, Los Retoños, will provide additional musical leadership.

There are many ways to observe Ash Wednesday, but this particular format, experienced by us in 2016 and 2017, was found by many to be especially spiritual and meaningful. We hope you will join us on Ash Wednesday, as we begin our Lenten journey.

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

HONORING A FAITHFUL STEWARD, MARY MONTOYA

On Sunday, February 25, 2018, Second Presbyterian Church will be honoring Mary Montoya for fifteen (15) years of volunteer service as our Paying Treasurer. Mary has provided faithful and exemplary service during the past years. This is in addition to the hours she donates in the kitchen every Sunday in helping to prepare refreshments for the Fellowship Hour and to Presbyterian Women, where she recently completed a term as Chairperson. Please join in expressing your appreciation to her during a reception to be held in Fellowship Hall following the worship service. The Stewardship and Finance Committee and the Session are grateful to Lynn Gatewood who has stepped forward to assume the role of Paying Treasurer.

SEARCH FOR COUNTING COORDINATOR: Elder Lynn Gatewood has been serving as the Counting Coordinator for the past months. Her new responsibility as Paying Treasurer does not permit her to continue in this role; therefore, the Session is searching for a Counting Coordinator whose responsibility is to appoint two (2) offering counters for each Sunday of the year. Please contact John Van Dyke or Pastor Rob should you desire additional information or even better, if you are interested in assuming this task.

STEWARDSHP CAMPAIGN: Thank you for your generous response to the Stewardship Campaign and to your ongoing support to the life and mission of Second Presbyterian Church. Last fall you were presented the option of requesting offering envelopes or opting out. Your response to this change has been positive and the Stewardship Committee has responded accordingly. Should you prefer envelopes, this option is still available by contacting Ruth Montoya or John Van Dyke.

PER CAPITA INCREASE: A reminder that our Per Capita expense has been increased from $34 to $36. You may use the blue envelopes found in the pews to cover your individual per capita expense. If not, per capita is paid out of the Church's general fund.

Worship and Music Committee

Liturgical Colors

The Presbyterian Church \(USA\) has sanctioned the use of liturgical colors and promoted their use in the 1993 Book of Common Worship (although their use was also promoted in the church's annual Planning Calendars beginning in the 1980s). The liturgical colors of the Christian year are: White for special days or seasons of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ; Purple marks the seasons of penitence and preparation, Lent and Advent; Red is the color for Pentecost; Green is used for all other time periods known as Ordinary Time.

While February is the shortest month of the year, three different liturgical colors will be seen in the sanctuary this month. We begin the month in Ordinary Time and the liturgical color is green. February 11th is Transfiguration Sunday and the liturgical color is white. Ash Wednesday is on February 14th and the beginning of the Lenten Season. The liturgical color for Lent is purple and that will be used through the remainder of February and March. Notice how the liturgical colors enhance the atmosphere of our worship services in the weeks to come.

The Three Solas

The three interlocking rings on the front walls of the sanctuary represent the Trinity, and are a symbol of the Reformation known as the Three Solas. They are specified as: scripture over tradition, faith over works, and grace over merit, each intended to represent an important distinction compared with Catholic doctrine.

Sola Scriptura, or "scripture alone" asserts that scripture must govern church traditions and interpretations which are themselves held to be subject to scripture. The Bible can and is to be interpreted through itself, with one area of scripture being useful for interpreting others.

Sola fide, or "faith alone", asserts that good works are not a means or requisite for salvation. Sola fide is the teaching that justification (interpreted in the Lutheran and Reformed theologies as "being declared just by God") is received by faith alone, without any need for good works on the part of the individual. In classical Lutheran and Reformed theologies, good works are seen to be evidence of saving faith, but the good works themselves do not determine salvation.

Sola gratia, or "only grace", specifically excludes the merit done by a person as part of achieving salvation. Sola gratia is the teaching that salvation comes by divine grace. This means that salvation is an unearned gift from God.

Offering of Flowers

You are invited to provide a bouquet of flowers (one or two) for Sunday worship. These can be designated in honor or memory of a loved one, or to celebrate a significant date. You may take the flowers home with you after the service, or notify the office that you would like them delivered to a homebound member. The sign-up sheet is posted in the Fellowship Hall, and many dates are available through April.
