A regular feature from
The Reverend Doctor Robert B Woodruff
Head of Staff of Second Presbyterian Church.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

The three sabbatical months have nearly come and gone. As I sit in a coffee shop in southeast Albuquerque with a week left, I excitedly anticipate returning to Second Pres. It will be great to see you again, learn about your summer, and tell you about mine! I can tell you now that for the stated sabbatical objectives of relaxation, refreshment, and renewal, (the three R's of sabbatical), mission accomplished! For the first time in a long time, I am caught up on rest. I have also allowed myself to take time to engage the world in ways I normally don't. And, I traveled and took time to pay more attention to myself and the world around me. My spirit is renewed! For three months, the world slowed down, and that afforded me spiritual restoration which is a gift of grace. The result, God willing, will be the enhancement of our faith work together. In the same way that I have gained new insights, I trust that you have too. I eagerly await hearing about your worship and life experiences this summer.

You may recall a quote I indicated that would guide my time away. It is from Abraham Herschel, author of Sabbath. Among all that he posits about sabbath, he holds that, "Our goal should be to live life in radical amazement.get up in the morning and look at the world in a way that takes nothing for granted. Everything is phenomenal; everything is incredible; never treat life casually. To be spiritual is to be amazed." As people of faith, we affirm the awesomeness of life, and are together on the journey of amazement. For 92 days, I have had the time and opportunity to mindfully observe and experience amazement without being beholden to standard rhythms of life and ministry, and this has shaped me and even changed me from who I was three months ago.

Relaxed, refreshed, and renewed, I am ready to come back and experience the amazement of the congregation, the worship, fellowship, and all of our work together. I will share sabbatical insights through preaching, and at the Wednesday morning, 11am Bible Study on September 5th. And I will return ready to hear from you!

Hasta pronto y bendiciones/See you soon and blessings,
Roberto

FROM THE PARISH ASSOCIATE

by The Rev. Dr. Kay E. Huggins

Dear members and friends of Second Presbyterian Church,

Thank you for the opportunity to oversee the pastoral, administrative and worship life of Second Presbyterian Church during this Sabbatical Summer. I found this to be a most enjoyable summer. I was engaged and using my former ministerial skills – it had been a decade since I was a solo pastor. I was also refreshed by the opportunities to know the congregation – as individuals and as a body – more deeply. Throughout my involvement in Second Presbyterian Church, I have emphasized adult education and offered supportive and, at times, challenging conversations with Pastor Rob. As your Parish Associate I will continue to teach, support your pastor and share in worship as requested...however, I now have new insights into and love for you, the congregation of Second Presbyterian Church. Thank you for a good summer...and now on to the fall! Peace to you!

YOUNG ADULT VOLUNTEER – LAUREN LAMONICA

On September 11th, we officially welcome Lauren LaMonica as our Young Adult Volunteer (YAV) at Second. Lauren comes to us from a year of YAV service in Chinook, MT. She is 26 years old and has an undergraduate degree in Communications. She will be with us from September, 2018, through mid-June, 2019. The Mission Committee has proposed a two-week period of orientation to the life of Second Presbyterian and to the missions we support. Subsequently, Lauren and Rob (who will be her supervisor) will devise a job description that balances Lauren’s contribution to the life of Second Presbyterian with her interest in our external missions. There will be a reception for all four YAV’s assigned to Albuquerque projects, but the details are yet to be arranged (Second Presbyterian has been asked to host this gathering). The YAV reception will give everyone an overview of the responsibilities, opportunities and commitments within this year of service.

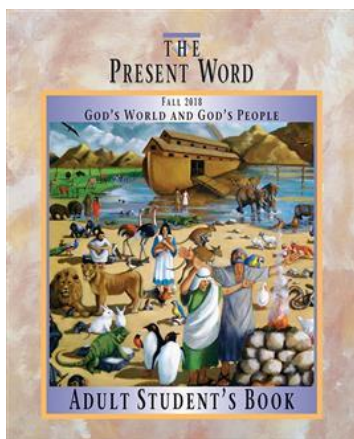

A GIFT OF COLOR

The Session of Second acknowledges with gratitude the gift of the colorful tiles in our Fellowship Hall by member Iona Barela. It was last spring when Iona approached Session with the idea of adding color and warmth to the décor of Fellowship Hall. We worked together to design a project and to select the tiles; they were installed in late spring and completed this summer. The gift is indeed enlivening of Fellowship Hall...but the motivation behind it is even more inspiring. We thought the whole community should know the backstory of the donor. Iona writes:

“For some reason (probably a strong nudging from the Holy Spirit) it was on my heart to offer this gift of colorful tiles. I truly believe that because the multi-purpose room is used by so many people, it should be a pleasant and welcoming place that in some form reflects our Hispanic heritage with the warmth and vibrancy that a cocina and gathering place represent. My parents raised their three children very much attached to Second and I have so many memories as a child of the various spaces within the church structures through many different activities, from worship, plays, day care, Sunday School, summer camp, funerals, weddings, etc. Foremost in my intent, and in gratitude, I want today’s children to remember their time at Second with bright images in their memories.”

We are grateful for both the gift and the impact it will make on members, visitors and guest of all ages and conditions. Thank you, Iona, we sincerely appreciate you and your generosity. Blessings on you from the Session.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT EDUCATION

Adult Education begins on September 9 at 9:00am in the Conference Room of the Candelaria Wing. This class is a group led discussion-based class using the PCUSA Present Word Curriculum. The Fall Quarter features is God’s World and God’s People and is a study of God’s creation, re-creation, and continual blessing as viewed through the lens of the broad themes found in Genesis. The author is a former classmate of Kay Huggins, Rev. Donald McKim, who has authored several adult educational resources as well as books on reformed and pastoral theology. Please consider adding this commitment to your fall as an important way to grow your faith and Christian life. The study books – both for students and leaders – are ready for distribution on September 9 @ 9 am!

NEW MEXICO PILGRIMAGE FOR UNITY – SEP 12-16

This is the second year for an ecumenical prayer-pilgrimage for unity. Last year, George and Kay Huggins participated in the inaugural pilgrimage, Kay as a walker and George driving a support vehicle. We intend to participate this year. We like to think of it as 50 miles of prayer...and we’re inviting you to send your prayer requests to us so that we and the 30+ other pilgrims may carry and pray for you as we walk. Again, this year the age range is from early 20’s to mid 70’s; there are an equal number of men and women participating; and the denominations represented are Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Episcopal, Evangelical, Quaker and unaffiliated...but we all believe in the power of prayer and we are all committed to demonstrating unity within and among the body of Christ. Please go to <http://nmpilgrimage.org> to learn more and leave a prayer request. Or email Kay.Huggins@me.com or George_Huggins@Presbynet.org or simply share with one of us what is on your heart.

HOSPITALITY

By Ella Porrugas & Eli Lopez,
Co-Chairs

Fellowship/Hospitality are both virtues of our Christian community at Second Presbyterian Church. Hospitality is defined as "the art of serving others", which conjures up :friendliness, kindness, congeniality, neighborliness, courtesy, generosity, entertainment and catering of food. Hospitality is inclusive and involves a community effort.

Fellowship is friendly association, especially with people who share one's interests. It involves sociability, comradery, and friendship. These definitions clearly depict and describe the nature of our community at Second Presbyterian Church.

Do you enjoy the fellowship and hospitality every Sunday after worship? If your answer is "yes", the Hospitality Committee would like you to become our partners in continuing to provide food for our weekly Sunday gatherings. We would encourage you to bring food and help with clean-up after our snack session. We will be posting a sign-up sheet for you to graciously volunteer for these activities.

We are grateful for the generosity of one of our members, Mr. Gilbert Miranda, for contributing our paper goods as needed. We thank you all for your cooperation and express our appreciation to those who regularly contribute by providing food, setting up the room and cleaning up afterward.

MEMBERSHIP

By Pat Gilberto

Thanks to the Live Wire committee who initiated our Church Management System, we know the following about our church community:

- 245 members
- 158 female
- 87 male
- 69 friends of the congregation

We value each of our members and friends. We plan to recognize five of our members who have been members for over 70 continuous years! They are: Lena de Herrera, Joe Candelaria, Frank Salazar, Alice Jones, and Horacio Romero. We plan to honor these special five ever faithful members on September 16th.

What does it take to be a member? According to the Book of Order:

An active member is a person who has made a profession of faith in Christ, has been baptized, has been received into membership of the church, has voluntarily submitted to the government of this church, and participates in the church's work and worship. In addition, active members participate in the governance of the church and may be elected to ordered ministry. Active members shall regularly, after prayerful consideration, recommit themselves to the disciplines www.secondpresabq.org, 812 Edith BLVD NE, Albuquerque NM 87102, 505-242-8005, office@secondpresabq.org

and responsibilities of membership. The session shall have responsibility for preparing those who would become active members of the congregation.

The membership committee always looks for additional new members and we hope to have a new class sometime this fall. If you or someone you know would like to become an active member, please let me or our committee know. Members of our committee are: Pastor Rob, Beverly Chavez, Susan Cordova-Romero, Phyllis Nunns, and Pat Gilberto.

If you are friend of this congregation and are not ready to be a member, we always welcome you to continue to be a friend.

PW ANNUAL MEXICAN DINNER AND BOUTIQUE

By Susie Chang

The Presbyterian Women of Second are already preparing for the Boutique held in tandem with the Annual Mexican Dinner always on the first Saturday of December. The ladies are asking for your help by accepting donations of homemade, vintage and collectible items. (They are trying to make the boutique a classy establishment!) But down the road - down the hall actually - the "LR Salvage Yard" will be in full swing. So, if you are feeling a little classy or you want a tried and true salvageable bargain, we will offer both! But we need your donations! We are starting early to give you enough time to ponder the plight of your possible give-a-ways making this a banner year in the life of the Second PW!

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

By Don Bixby and Karmen Van Dyke

Services during Pastor's Leave: While Pastor Rob was on sabbatical this summer, we enjoyed an extraordinary schedule of guests in our pulpit who offered a wide array of gifts. Chief among these voices was not really a guest but our own Parish Associate, the Reverend Kay Huggins. She led worship on the first Sunday of each month as we celebrated communion. But perhaps even more importantly, she led in the development of the liturgy to provide scriptural context and support for the range of guest speakers, empowering the messages they brought to us. For this leadership we are grateful. We also acknowledge the wealth of summer music directed by Karmen Van Dyke, and the innumerable tasks undertaken by Beverly Chavez to assure a successful summer program at Second Presbyterian Church.

The last Sunday of each month we celebrated worship with a hymn-sing of old favorites and included some Spanish language anthems. We heard thoughtful Voices from the Pew from Lorraine Romero, Conrad Rocha, Michael Rubio, Tessie Lopez, Anita Romero Torres and James Brown. We are grateful that these friends are willing to share their stories with us. Many folks were especially inspired by these life stories, and have requested that Voices from the Pew be continued in some form.

Special Services in the near Future:

- September 2nd Pastor Rob and his family will return to our worship service after the summer sabbatical. During this service he will be "re-stoled." He will be preaching and giving the Children's Moment. Holy Communion will be co-celebrated with Reverend Kay with special bread. Flowers will be provided by Worship Committee in appreciation for all who have made the time of renewal a success. In collaboration with the Personnel Committee, the staff will be recognized for going beyond www.secondpresabq.org, 812 Edith BLVD NE, Albuquerque NM 87102, 505-242-8005, office@secondpresabq.org expectations in planning and support for this successful time of renewal. A potluck lunch will be held during fellowship hour, so please plan to stay after worship for this time of joyful reunion.

- September 24th is designated as Gifts of New Immigrants Sunday. And;
- October 1st is World Communion Sunday. Plans for these services are not yet completed. Please watch the weekly bulletins for details as they emerge.

Liturgical Colors: The Liturgical color seen in the sanctuary is green, the color of Ordinary Time. We will see green in the sanctuary until late November, when Christ the King Sunday will be celebrated with white banners. The following Sunday begins the Advent Season when we will change to purple, the color of preparation. Look for some seasonal amendments over the next few months.

Ushers/Greeters: You are invited to provide a welcoming greeting to visitors and members on Sunday mornings. We gratefully acknowledge that Louella Gurulé has been making calls for years to schedule Sunday greeters. In an attempt to make her job easier and to encourage wider participation, a sign-up sheet is posted in the Fellowship Hall. If you have questions about participation in worship, contact Louella Gurulé lou3ag@gmail.com

At least two people are required each Sunday, and the first Sunday of the month will feature youth greeters. Please be in the sanctuary 30 minutes before the service begins and read instruction at the back of the church. Light the candles at the beginning of the service when Beverly plays the chimes. At the end of the service take the flame from the candles to the back of the church, symbolizing the Light going into the world.

Flowers for Worship Service: In 2017, and to this date in 2018, not a single Sunday was without flowers in the sanctuary. Thanks to all who made these beautiful additions to our services possible. To continue this notable support for our worship services, a sign-up sheet is posted in the Fellowship Hall. You may choose a date to honor or memorialize a special person or event, which will be acknowledged in the bulletin. (If your date is already taken, please choose another date.)

Worship and Music Committee meeting is scheduled for 9:00 AM on Wednesday, September 12. We will be orienting our new Young Adult Volunteer (YAV), Lauren LaMonica about the committee's work. For anyone interested in learning more about the Worship and Music Committee, you would be welcome to attend this orientation session.

CHANGING SHAPE CHILDREN'S CHOIR PROGRAM

The shape of the music program for our children and youth will be changing this fall, based on the ages of the current children and youth—and the interest indicated by those families wishing to participate.

CALENDAR: The original design of the children and youth music program was requested to be 4 to 6 weeks' blocks, followed by a break. This year our younger choir will have two significant breaks: the first will be all of October (after singing for World Communion) and the second is November 18 and 25 and December 2. Our older group will have three short breaks: October 7 (after they sing for World Communion) and 14, and one Sunday in November after they participate on November 4.

WHEN AND WHERE: We will begin the fall on September 23, with 11:45 to 12:45 rehearsals. This means that children and youth participating in music will move directly from Sunday School into the large room of the Candelaria Wing. Snacks will be available.

AGE GROUPS: The younger choir, Los Seminales (The Seedlings), this fall will be open to 3 years old through First grade. The older group, Los Rotoños (The Sprouts) will be Second through Fifth graders.

PROGRAM: Both choirs will spend 5-10 minutes learning about music symbols and notes. The younger choir will primarily work with singing; the older group will sing and, beginning this year, play hand chimes, "barred instruments" (little marimbas), and drums.

LEADERSHIP: Debi Eisenhower will be lead teacher; Karmen Van Dyke will spend time with instruments and percussion; and Anita Abeyta and Becky Johnson will be support staff.

JOYFUL NOISE ENSEMBLE

The Joyful Noise Ensemble (the youth instrumental group which last year consisted of Layla Cocio, Gavin Hoover, Damian Johnson, Eli Lopez, Isaac Ploof) will this fall open its ranks to people of any age. We believe we have added an adult French horn player—and are looking forward to any other “wannabe” instrumentalists.

CALENDAR: Rehearsals begin on September 16 to prepare a Korean folk song for World Communion Sunday, October 7. The calendar after World Communion will be 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month, 11:45am-12:45pm (rehearsals 10/14 and 28, November 11 and 25, December 9 and 23). Sundays between rehearsals private help is available on request.

PROGRAM: The rehearsals will prepare music for worship, develop sight reading skills, and give opportunities to support the hymns. Solo opportunities are there ONLY for those interested (no harassment allowed).

LEADERSHIP: Joy Bohning will be conducting the ensemble, with Camila Hoover as support staff.

WHAT ABOUT GUITAR?

Bob Deuble will continue his Sunday 9:30am guitar class, beginning October 14. He will welcome anyone of any age, and guitars are available for those who have not played previously. Talk with Bob or Karmen Van Dyke for any additional information.

SUMMER THANK YOU'S

This has been an extraordinary summer of musical gifts and time generously given--especially by the Adult Choir and choral leadership. The choir faithfully led worship EVERY SUNDAY, other than Voices from the Pew Sundays, the first summer requesting this level of commitment in more than 22 years! To insure “our best”, Diego Chavez, Willy Chavez, and Gabe Van Dyke added their voices on occasion.

We loved the choral leadership given by Julian Griego, Annika Reid, George Huggins, Beverly Chavez, Ruth Montoya, and the Lopez trio. Jonathon Leavitt’s Native flute and Abel McBride JR’s guitar were “first timers” for us, as was new drumming opportunities for Dolores Romero, Anika Reid, and Jonathon Leavitt. You all contributed to a refreshing and often moving series of summer worship services. Many, many thanks.

Thanks also to the CONGREGATION. You have demonstrated a great willingness to try new things with enthusiasm and joy that is contagious. One more time, many, many thanks.

EPIC (Youth)

By Francis & Susie Chang

Have you ever seen a taffy pulling machine in a candy store? It pumps up and down, twists and turns until, after a while, the confection has the consistency of an elastic rubber band. It is truly fascinating to watch.

At times, being a leader of a church youth group, is much the same. All the sweetness is poured into the mix and it is constantly being stretched first one way and then the other. The dynamics never stay the same. Some kids move away (Leyla and Desaray), while another is added (Alexis). Then there is the new adventure of employment (Isaac) plus extra school activities (Amanda, Gavin and Marcos). And for each and every kid there is always HOMEWORK, HOMEWORK, HOMEWORK!

So, as we see the beginning of our sixth year as EPIC leaders, we are filled with a sense of anticipation of what comes next. Change is always a cause for a bit of anxiety but change is good. It's just a matter of tweaking your attitude a bit.

WEDNESDAY ADULT BIBLE STUDY

By Kay Huggins

Look before you leap is wise advice when crossing a stream. It is surprisingly useful for studying scripture. September will set the stage for an in-depth study of the Gospel of John in October - November. First, we will welcome back our pastor by hearing about his sabbatical journey. Then, two weeks on the Lectionary as guide to the four gospels. Finally, a consideration of scripture in worship. It's our way of looking before leaping!

After a summer of rest, refreshment and renewal Bible Study begins again:

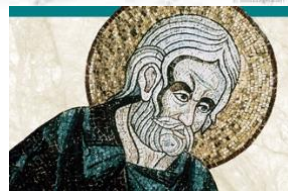

September 5 Pastor Rob will lead a Sabbatical review.

September 12 & 19 Pastor Kay will review the 4 Gospels

September 26 Pastor Rob and Karmen Van Dyke will discuss the use of scripture in worship.

October & November
Gospel of John led by Pastor Kay Huggins
