A Great Harvest

What we plant in the soil of contemplation, we shall reap in the harvest of action.

Meister Eckhart

Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

November is a cool month! Literally of course, as a chill enters the air. But also figuratively. Leaves are turning and we enter a season of harvest and abundance. Society gives us Thanksgiving, a holiday set aside for gratefulness and celebration of the provisions that sustain us, and a time also to share the harvest with others. Similarly, the church gives us stewardship season, a time to contemplate and relish the harvest. November is Stewardship month, which always means two things. We are invited to celebrate and cultivate gratitude—profound appreciation for all we have been given by God. And there is always a second element of stewardship. For the season is also a time to take action and plant for the next harvest. We celebrate one season and prepare for another.

The harvest this year in our church is abundant! We have so much to celebrate. We are blessed with wonderful worship, committed and creative leadership, and profound growth—both our outreach and mission along with our congregation as a whole. Time-after-time, I am humbled by God’s work in our community. And yet, as with any harvest, it is time to plant for the next year. November 18th will be our Dedication Sunday. During worship, we are all invited to walk to the front of the sanctuary and offer our pledge, our proverbial “first fruits,” for the coming year.

Author Robert Louis Stevenson suggests, “Don’t judge each day by the harvest you reap but by the seeds that you plant.” There are no two ways about it—the seeds we plant for next year and beyond, are seeds planted to grow our community of faith. Our session will be looking at ways to hone our programming, and there are dreams in the works for the next couple of years--stay tuned! Last year our stewardship theme was Growing Our Roots. We are doing that. And if we continue to cultivate our roots, and plant more seeds, our harvest will grow and there will be more to celebrate and share!

Grace & Peace, Roberto

YOUNG ADULT GROUP

By Elizabeth Korver-Glenn & Sarah Keegan

The 'Young' Adult Group is continuing to meet for dinner and fellowship, beginning at 6:30pm each Monday evening. In addition to getting to know each other better, we have spent the last few weeks talking about the Image of God, living a Christ-like life, and the story of Jesus's encounter with a wealthy young man. And, we are excited to be planning for the upcoming year! We have spoken with Rev. Kay Huggins about leading a short series for the group, and continue to look forward to sharing, deepening, and transforming our faith through reflecting on Scripture and life journeys over shared meals. You, your teens, children, and guests are welcome and encouraged to come and join us. Contact Elizabeth (1020elia@gmail.com) or Randall (randall.s.glenn@gmail.com) Korver-Glenn for more info.

NEW MEMBERS' CLASS

By Pat Gilberto

If you or someone you know has decided that they would like to be an official member of Second, please let them know that a class for potential new members has been scheduled. The class is on Saturday, November 17th beginning at 10:00am. The class will end about 1:00pm and includes lunch provided by the Membership Committee.

We encourage you to attend if you are interested. Just please let Pastor Rob, Beverly Chavez at 242-8005, or Pat Gilberto at 836-7116 know so that we can plan for lunch.

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

By Ruth Montoya

"Harvesting the Gifts" is the theme selected by the Stewardship and Finance Committee for this year's Stewardship Campaign. The theme is a carry-over from last year's theme, "Roots to Grow", which was based on the nature of the history, strong worship, warm hospitality, youth programs, Christian Education, and mission focus of Second. You, the congregation, will agree that we have actively responded to all these areas of ministry through our participation and monetary support, thus we are harvesting these gifts as seen in the ongoing growth of our church membership.

As you consider your pledges of time, talent and monetary giving for 2019, you are encouraged to consider a small increase from your 2018 pledge. Keep in mind that you support our excellent and dedicated staff and programs; the upkeep of our building/grounds; support for worldwide mission through the four Special Offerings that are received throughout the year; and a Per Capita percentage ($36 assessment per member) that shares in the benefit of supporting the function of our church's system of government.

Dedication Sunday is scheduled for November 18th. In addition to dedicating your monetary gifts during the worship service, prayerfully consider the ways in which you can give of your time and talents. Consider volunteering to serve as a Sunday morning Liturgist (Lay Leader), ushering, assisting during Fellowship Hour, singing in the choir, opening the church for the Wings Ministry (twice monthly), cooking for the hunger program (Project Share), teaching a Sunday School class, joining Presbyterian Women or Presbyterian Men, or serving on various committees of the Session. These are a few of many areas that would welcome your help.

Offering Envelopes: In an effort to reduce cost and waste, the Stewardship Committee offered the congregation the option of requesting offering envelopes or opting out by using pew envelopes or simply placing a check in the offering plate. We are repeating this option for 2019 which is indicated on the pledge card that will be mailed to you in November.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

By Anita Abeyta

We are into our second month of Sunday School for the Fall! Our theme for all grades is "Story Telling." The Bible is full of storytelling, and we are not lacking in subject matter. Besides that, Sunday School is a pretty busy place between teaching, the kids learning new music, instruments and singing during worship. Last week we focused on Mark 10:43-45, serving for our glory or to serve others, like Jesus did? As I watch the kids grow in Christ, I feel they are teaching me more about giving and serving. I feel blessed to be in this richly rewarding position.

I have a question for all of you. Do you think you might have approximately 6 hours, for one month in the Fall/Winter and in the Winter/Spring to serve? If you think you do, please come talk to me (Anita), or call 505-730-5269. Sunday School needs more teachers.

Thank you for your prayers and thanks to all the awesome teachers that currently serve.

ALBUQUERQUE HEALTHCARE FOR THE HOMELESS

By Don Bixby

HOMELESSNESS WILL MAKE YOU SICK AND CAN KILL YOU

The statistics are grim. In the City of Albuquerque, more than 1,400 reported homelessness on January 23, 2017. According to the New Mexico Coalition to End Homelessness, at least 16,000 persons – 2.3% of Bernalillo County residents – will experience homelessness during the year.

For over three decades, Albuquerque Health Care for the Homeless (AHCH) has served our community as the only health care organization in Central New Mexico dedicated exclusively to providing services to homeless people. When people experience homelessness, access to adequate health care can mean the difference between getting back on your feet or dying. AHCH believes all people are entitled to health care, including those living in cars or motels, couch surfing, on the street, in shelters and in transitional housing. Having access to medical care for chronic conditions like diabetes, high blood pressure, chronic pain, is essential.

AHCH provides critical services to over 7,000 men, women and children every year. By addressing the health-related causes of homelessness, AHCH makes it possible for people to find solutions to end their homelessness.

While the needs are many, Second Presbyterian Church is focusing on a collection of towels and stockings for men, women and children, during the Advent Season. The clinic Resources Center has showers for the homeless and towels are always in demand. For folks who are out on the street all day, a fresh pair of socks is a treasure. Please put bath towels and socks on your holiday shopping list for the homeless. For questions or further information contact Pat Bixby.

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

is a program of adult education intended to expand Biblical knowledge and strengthen faith.
Every Wednesday 11:00 am - Fellowship Hall
Led by: Rev. Dr. Kay Huggins, Parish Associate

Thru Dec 12 - The Gospel of John

We are currently studying the Gospel of John — slowly, very slowly. We do a chapter per week...and the study may stretch into 2019! The class continues to feature both theological interpretation and lively question and answer section. However, we have added a new twist; the sessions are on our website so that students who want to work at their own pace or who miss a class can keep current. The videos run about 30 minutes and do not include the group discussion as the un-amplified voices do not record well. We hope that these videos will provide another path into the discipline of Bible study. Of course, attending the class is the most rewarding experience since there are so many questions and applications presented by class members. Still those, who have used the videos for personal study or to catch up after missing a session, report the quality is good and the content helpful. Check it out here.

(NOTE: This schedule will change. The class is studying one chapter per week!)

- November 7 - John 10 - 11, He Calls His Sheep by Name, Death of Lazarus, The Man who Creates God-Signs
- November 14 - John 12 - 13, Anointing His Feet, See How Your King Comes, A Grain of Wheat must Die, Their Eyes are Blinded, Washing His Disciples' Feet, The One Who ate Bread at my Table, A New Command

YOUNG ADULT VOLUNTEER (YAV)

By Lauren LaMonica

Well, well, well, it's been two months since I've started my journey here at Second Presbyterian and honestly, I'm still pretty excited about it all.

In just these two months I've learned way more about how a church functions and runs than I ever thought I would actually need to know. After having done my first children moment here, and now onto my first Project Share, I am so thrilled to where this path is leading me.

-Peace and Love to all- Lauren LaMonica

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT CLASS

By Kay Huggins

9:00am, Candelaria Wing Conference Room

In November, the Present Word curriculum concludes three units on God's World and God's People, but continuing to study some of the great passages from Genesis. This is a class that shares responsibility for leading...and sometimes there are two (or more!) individuals prepared to lead; in other words, the participants take their shared responsibility seriously.

The sessions of the last Unit III: God Blesses and Re-Creates Regardless are:

- Nov. 4 A Troubled Birth, Genesis 25:19-34
- Nov. 11 Jacob Receives Isaac's Blessing, Genesis 27:1-28:5
- Nov. 18 Jacob Forms a Relationship with God, Genesis 28:10-22
- Nov. 24 God Blesses Jacob and Rachel, Genesis 30.

In December a new quarter will begin with an investigation of Our Love for God, drawing from both Old and New Testament passages. Please drop in for a visit or plan to be a part of this sturdy group of independent students-teachers. It really is a great experience – one of Second's best kept secrets.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

By Don Bixby

All Saints Day November 4th. The liturgical color for this service is White. As in previous years, images of loved ones who have passed since last November will be projected and memorialized during the service. If a loved one has passed since last November, you are invited to bring photos to the office well before the 4th. All are invited to bring photos of those who have been remembered from previous years. These will be placed on tables at the front of the sanctuary and become part of our celebration of the cloud of witnesses who have enriched our lives.

A Healing Service will be a part of worship on November 11 as we prepare for the holidays. Scripture strongly affirms ministries of spiritual healing. Through such healing, God works to bring about reconciliation between God and humanity, among individuals and communities, within each person, and between humanity and the rest of creation. The New Testament records that Jesus himself healed the sick and sent out his disciples on ministries of healing.

Those who minister spiritual healing are channels of God's love. A Service of Healing is not necessarily a service of curing, but it provides an atmosphere in which healing can happen. Anointing with oil shows the power of touch, and is an act invoking the healing love of God. The oil points beyond itself and those doing the anointing to the action of the Holy Spirit and the presence of the healing Christ, who is God's Anointed One.

Christ the King Sunday November 25 Christ the King Sunday celebrates the full authority of Christ as King and Lord of the universe. Officially called "The Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King," it is celebrated with Holy Communion on the final Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Sunday before Advent. The color of the banners for this celebration is changed from the Green of ordinary time to White. By the next week we will be entering the season of Advent when the color will be Purple.

Food Donation On the first Sunday of the month you are invited to bring nonperishable foods that will be taken to the Albuquerque food bank to help feed the many in our community who are without adequate food.

Sign-up Sheets The programs and worship services of Second are maintained by the large and small gifts and acts of thoughtfulness by many people. For these gifts we are all grateful. You can support our programs in many ways, but there are signup sheets for three ways in the Fellowship Hall: 1) providing flowers, 2) serving as ushers, 3) helping with hospitality. You might want to choose dates with special significance.

Christmas is Coming It still feels like fall but the Advent Season and Christmas are just around the corner. Please consider your gift of a poinsettia to enhance the sanctuary during the coming holiday.

DOCTRINE OF DISCOVERY

From GA News, June 20, 2018

Repudiating the “Doctrine of Discovery” will help the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A) address the harm of past injustices and inform the denomination in its future mission work, a Presbyterian human rights attorney said Tuesday.

June Lorenzo at the Native American Consulting Committee Dinner at the 223rd General Assembly —

The “discovery” doctrine led to abuses generations ago that continue to traumatize Native Americans, June Lorenzo said in an address during the Native American Consulting Committee dinner. A member of Laguna United Presbyterian Church in Santa Fe Presbytery, she served on the team that produced the Doctrine of Discovery report to be received by the PC(USA) General Assembly this week.

The doctrine originated as a papal teaching that European countries used to justify their colonization of other parts of the world. It also played a role in the westward expansion of the United States, and large numbers of Native Americans lost their land, and their lives, as a result. Lorenzo said Native American women and children often were sexually abused by military personnel.

“It is no wonder that we have more and more native scholars who say that you cannot leave intergenerational trauma out of the picture” when considering the plight of Native Americans, she observed.

The General Assembly is being asked to urge Presbyterians to repudiate the doctrine and confess their complicity in it. Lorenzo reminded the gathering that the rights of indigenous people is an issue that goes beyond the borders of the United States. She said the PC(USA) should always be concerned about justice for indigenous people as it pursues its international mission work.

Background:

The 222nd General Assembly (2016) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) called the church to confess its complicity and repudiate the Doctrine of Discovery. The action also called for a review of the history of the doctrine and the writing of a report on the doctrine.

The Doctrine of Discovery was first articulated in 1452 by Pope Nicholas V as the Papal Bull “Dum Diversas” and in 1496 by King Henry VII of England as a patent granted to John Cabot, which authorized and justified the destruction, killing, and appropriating of the lands of indigenous peoples and nations. The Doctrine of Discovery was incorporated into U.S. law in the 19th century when the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in the case, Johnson vs McIntosh, 1823, stating that European nations had assumed dominion over the lands of America upon discovery and as a result Native Americans had lost their rights to complete sovereignty as independent nations and retained a mere right of occupancy in their lands. A U.S. Supreme Court case as recent as 2005, City of Sherrill v. Oneida Nation of Indians, utilized the Doctrine of Discovery as legal precedent for the final decision. This doctrine laid the groundwork for the genocide of indigenous peoples around the world; the colonization of Africa, Asia, Australia, the Pacific Islands, and the Americas; and the transatlantic trafficking in persons used as slave labor.
