Of Minimal Importance

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Our Lenten theme for this year is spiritual minimalism. Some of you are aware of the current minimalist movement in our country and in other places in the world. It is predicated on the notion of ridding ourselves of an over-abundance of material things. Our living and work spaces, and even our cars can collect clutter. And when we consciously remove many if not most of our material items (we may not even use), it can organize our priorities and lead to greater happiness. One definition for minimalism is: “a tool to rid yourself of life’s excess in favor of focusing on what’s important—so you can find happiness, fulfillment, and freedom,” (From Joshua Fields Millburn & Ryan Nicodemus’s website called The Minimalists, <https://www.theminimalists.com/minimalism/>).

Similarities exist between that minimalism and the way our spirituality functions. In the rapid flow of our lives—our experiences and relationships, our minds and hearts begin accumulating too many things to process. Our pursuits, worries, desires, hang-ups, traumas, hopes, dreams, and so many more things clutter our souls. This leads to distractions that block out or cloud our spiritual lives and prevents them from leading to contentment, fulfillment, and freedom in our relationships with God and each other.

We will kick off Lent on Ash Wednesday, March 6, 7pm in our sanctuary, with our friends and partners in mission from First Presbyterian Church. That evening we will begin our faithful Lenten pursuit of spiritual minimalism. This liturgical season will provide invitation, guided by our worship, to consider what we might let go of, and how we might free up space in our minds and hearts for God’s presence. We will conduct a spiritual inventory and identify what holds us back as individuals and as a community from living a more focused and fruitful spiritual life? The route will lead to Calvary, where Christ empties himself completely only to find new life and purpose that will change the universe forever. I look forward to journeying through Lent with you very soon. I trust it will be a significant season in which we embrace “minimal” importance! Or better stated, the importance of minimalism.

Grace & Peace,
Robert

The Doctrine of Discovery

• In 1823, the landmark case Johnson v. M'Intosh, Chief Justice Marshall traced English title to land in America to the "discovery" of America by the Italian explorer John Cabot, acting pursuant to Letters Patent issued in 1496 by King Henry VII's royal commission

DOCTRINE OF DISCOVERY

The Doctrine of Discovery was first articulated in 1452 by Pope Nicholas V as the Papal Bull "Dum Diversas" and in 1496 by King Henry VII of England as a patent granted to John Cabot, which authorized and justified the destruction, KILLING, and appropriating of the lands of indigenous peoples and nations.

The 222nd General Assembly (2016) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) called the church to confess its complicity and repudiate the Doctrine of Discovery. The action also called for a review of the history of the doctrine and the writing of a report on the doctrine.

Your Session has been reviewing the Doctrine Of Discovery, and in Special Meeting on February 2, 2019, we unanimously passed this resolution:

"The Session of Second repudiates the Doctrine of Discovery. We confess our complicity in the injustice of the Doctrine and promise to: (1) educate our congregation on the history and implications of the Doctrine; (2) work with higher councils to reinforce proliferation of repudiation to other Sessions and higher councils; and (3) cultivate relationships with Native American individuals and tribes, and especially Native American congregations."

Please review the resources provided by the General Assembly on the Doctrine of Discovery (posted on the Facing Racism website: <https://facing-racism.pcusa.org/item/41901/>), and lift up histories of Indigenous peoples and current issues facing Indigenous peoples.

"May the warm winds of heaven blow softly upon you and the Creator make sunrise in your hearts."
(Cherokee Prayer)

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

By Eli Lopez

The annual reports have been published and distributed to the congregation. Session has met for our annual retreat to discuss our mission and goals for the upcoming year. Committee assignments have been formalized and we are excited about the progress of our mission!

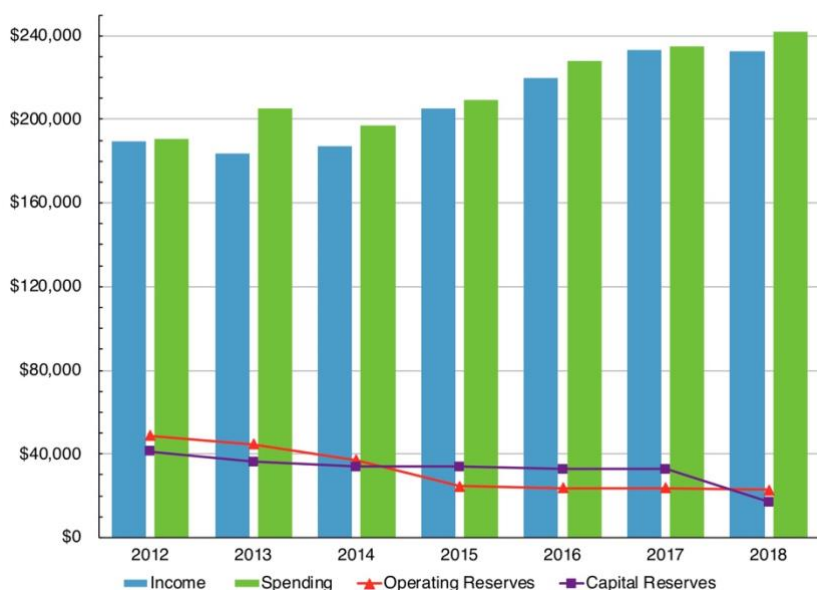

We are very thankful to Ruth Montoya for her dedication and leadership in chairing the Stewardship and Finance committee. As we move forward we will continue with the Stewardship campaign of "Harvesting our Gifts", using every talent, expertise and generous contribution from each of our members.

As we reported in our annual report, expanded on by Pastor Rob in our congregational meeting, our budget is in deficit. We have a challenge to meet. Our church community is resilient, dedicated and generous. We will rise to the challenge and find ways to resolve our deficit. We as a Christian community will get through this. Our program and mission are strong and you have shown support for what is taking place in our church as evidenced by your increase in pledges.

Every Session member has already agreed to increase their pledge for 2019. We encourage all members to increase their pledge by whatever amount they can afford. Please do not interpret this suggestion as pressure to do so. If you choose to increase, please include a pledge card/note so that the committee can plan accordingly. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

The current situation is simple. Our church (home) is going through the same needs and expenses as do all homes. However, our income is not meeting spending. Thus, we need to see if we can increase income, because projected needs for the coming year include both air conditioning and furnace repairs or replacements.

I think we can make an analogy between our predicament and the sermon on "Tough Love" Pastor Rob shared with us on Sunday Feb. 5th, in which he described "agape" love (Greek) that cares about the well-being of others. It relies on sacrifice and patience and is most altruistic. He stated that the underlying assumption of "Tough Love" is a good thing. It teaches us some of the most important lessons and truths we will learn in our lives. We can use this message to inspire us into coming together and allowing our almighty God to lead us through this challenge.

Because of our commitment to program and facility, spending has outpaced income, and we have met the deficit by using funds from Reserves.

We have sufficient funds to meet the projected 2019 deficit, but prefer not to continue to expend from Reserves. Reserves are intended to be used for unforeseen and required large expenditures.

Please ask a Session member if you have questions.

WEDNESDAY ADULT BIBLE STUDY

By Rev. Dr. Kay Huggins

The Wednesday Adult Bible Study returns to the Gospel of John on Ash Wednesday at 11am. Regardless of whether or not you've studied the first 12 chapters, everyone will profit from the Jesus' own review of his teachings in Chapters 13 -17, the extended teaching of Jesus after his last meal with his disciples. Join us during the month of March for these Sessions:

March 6, Chapter 13: Jesus washes his disciples' feet and gives a new commandment

March 13, Chapter 14: Jesus prepares his disciples for his departure

March 20, Chapter 15: Jesus instructs his disciples how to abide

March 27, Chapter 16: Jesus imparts his joy to this disciple

Classes are held in Fellowship Hall every Wednesday beginning at 11am and concluding at noon. Edited video versions of each class are posted on Second's web site by the Thursday following the class. Regular participants can catch missed sessions; others can have a taste of the content (but not the conversations) of each class. Check out a Class Session here: <http://www.secondpresabq.org/wed-bible-study.html>

YOUNG ADULT GROUP

By Dr. Elizabeth Korver-Glenn

Please join the 'young' adult group as we continue to fellowship over food and walk the Jesus way together! Currently, we are studying 'Images of God,' focusing specifically on the feminine, non-gendered, and gender-bending ways God is revealed to us in Scripture and through which we reveal God in our lives. Later this Spring, we'll also study resurrection and its implications for our lives. Please join us - all are welcome!

Typically, we meet at Casa Korver-Glenn at 6:30pm on Wednesdays.

Please email Elizabeth (1020elia@gmail.com) or Randall

(randall.s.glenn@gmail.com) Korver-Glenn with questions. We hope to see you soon!

REV DR QUIÑONES VISITING MARCH 17

Rev Q will be worshipping with Second on March 17, 2019. We will have a pot luck after the service in his honor.

WHAT IS A YAV? - Part 3

By Lauren LaMonica

What does it mean to live in an intentional community? Well I am glad you asked. Living in an intentional Christian community is hard work. You constantly have to put the community before yourself, and when you're not used to that particular mindset it can be a bit rough. That being said, I wouldn't change my intentional living Christian community for anything. My housemates (the other YAVs in Albuquerque), Kim and Julie, have been absolutely amazing and supportive in the decisions we make together. Living with a random group of people that you've never met before can be a bit daunting, but the main thing that we have focused on is to diligently include everyone in community day, even if it's things that we don't really feel like doing. For me it would be hiking. The girls always ask if a community day activity is something I would enjoy, knowing my answer 9/10 times for hiking is a umm no thank ya.

We also incorporate our different church experiences. Kim and Julie to different churches throughout the month. I stay at Second because well I work there. So, on Sundays when we do our community cleaning we talk about the different worship experiences we had that day. As an intentional community we also have a community budget, that we contribute from our stipend. The budget is for everyday household things or if we want to treat ourselves and go out for the evening. We make a point to catch up with each other every day and if we can't we do every other day because well ya know and what not it gets a bit busy. For me an intentional living Christian community is about putting the group before yourself. We are a team. We all have our hard days, and during those days the others in the household help pick up the slack. I for one am super grateful to my community and the way we have persevered through so much stuff within our first five months, and that we are becoming more and more like a little family of misfits each and every day!

( Ed. Note – I've asked Lauren for a series of newsletter articles describing the YAV program. )

FAMILY PROMISE SWEET JAZZ CONCERT

By Laura Combs, Executive Director

The Family Promise of Albuquerque Annual Sweet Jazz Concert will occur March 3, 2019, at 6pm at Sandia Presbyterian Church. We have 10 local Jazz musicians who come and perform free of charge to us. We serve sweets, e.g., cookies, candies, cakes. We usually also have a silent auction and a 50/50 raffle. Tickets are available for $20. We will provide 10 free tickets to Second.

We do need support with the sweets. We hope to have about 400 people at the event and hope you can commit to providing some sweets. We would be able to pick up those baked goods on the morning of the event or even have them dropped off on the Friday before the event. You can call me or email me if interested and let me know what baked goods you might be able to provide.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

By Anita Abeyta

In December the Sunday School classes (that means all the kids) decided that we would save up the money from our weekly collection, for two months. At the end of the two months, we decided what we wanted to buy to donate to Health Care For The Homeless. We collected around $75.00 (with great help from the teachers) and bought 60 men and women socks and 100 toothbrushes (see the picture!). Our children felt a sense of accomplishment and were very happy with their choice.

We have a new teacher, Michael Rubio! He's excited to join the group and we're blessed to have him. Michael, Randall Korver-Glenn and Emma Sky Korver-Glenn taught last Sunday. Yes, I said Emma Sky, who is nine months! As you can see, we are very accommodating to our teachers. We are still in need of teachers for elementary age. So, bring your child, bring your grandchild or your walker. We would love to have you join our team and we know you would add a great deal.

Last Sunday we found that the music class was so close to our high and mid-high class it was impossible for the youth to hear! I am searching for fresh ideas in a way that will help our youth grow.

Lauren, our YAV, has been helping with Sunday Scholl - all age groups. Our children are enjoying her VERY MUCH! Thank you, Lauren. You have grown so much. I hope this experience has helped you as much as it has helped us.

Once again, we welcome you and your ideas. God's Blessings to All. Anita.

EPIC (YOUTH)

By Francis and Susie Chang

EPIC had a great time on a Saturday morning as we teamed with First, Rio Rancho, Placitas and Camino de Vida working at Silver Horizons. This organization distributes food to hungry senior citizens. We had ten Youth and four adults bagging dog and cat food as so many seniors, if having to make a choice, would rather feed their beloved pets than buy food for themselves. Some of our kids also checked expiration dates on packaged and canned foods, tossing those items that would pose a safety hazard. Afterward, we invited all the youth groups back to Second where we fed them pizza!

During the Presbytery meeting's worship service on February 23, six of our Youth joined 35 other youth in the commissioning of their Triennium trip in July. That put us just one step closer to a memorable adventure!

Our Souper Bowl campaign received 549 pounds of non-perishable food that was delivered to the Storehouse!

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

By Don Bixby

The Lenten Season Preview

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, is March 6. An evening service will be held with the combined choirs of First and Second. Pastor Rob and Rev. Matt Miller will lead the service.

Lent is the season for preparation through prayer and the repentance of sins. Its institutional purpose is heightened in the commemoration of Holy Week, marking the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, which recalls the events of the New Testament. The theme for the season is Christian minimalism. The first Sunday in April we will celebrate Holy Communion and will incorporate a healing ritual with anointing of oil.

We are planning for a drama depicting Jesus' entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. Later in the week there will be a commemoration of the Last Supper on Maundy Thursday, further climaxing on Jesus' crucifixion on Good Friday. That evening service will feature the choirs of Second and Risen Savior Roman Catholic Church in a Tenebrae service.

Holy Week will culminate on Easter Sunday in the joyful remembrance of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. A Sunrise Service in the Quiñones Peace Garden will begin the day of celebration, followed by Easter brunch before the 10:30am worship service. Those attending the 10:30am service will be greeted by a mariachi band. They will have the opportunity to place a blossom on the floral cross that will become part of our worship celebration.

Help Wanted:

Flowers for worship service: It is our tradition that flowers for the worship service are provided by friends and members of the church to honor a person or event of significance, such as the memory of a departed loved one, or an anniversary. There is a sign-up sheet posted in the Fellowship Hall where you can choose a date to bring flowers for the service.

Matchmakers: The mates of several of our paired vases have wandered off. If you know the whereabouts of these delinquents, or any others hiding out in your cupboards or back rooms, please put them in the kitchen by the triple sinks.

Sewing Machine: The ArtStreet Studio at Albuquerque Health Care for the Homeless needs a sewing machine. If you have an unused machine available for donation, please contact Don Bixby.

Hospitality: Fellowship is an important element of our church community. The gatherings after worship for coffee and conversation are in need of assistance to provide food and help with set-up and clean up on Sunday mornings. There is a sign-up sheet posted in the Fellowship Hall where you can choose a date to contribute to this valuable part of our ministry. For questions, contact Ella Porragas or Sandra Duran.

Steamer and/or steam iron: We need a steamer iron or steamer to help maintain linens used in our worship services. If you can provide such help, please contact Don Bixby.

Back packs and small roller suitcases: These are needed by participant in our Trans-Asylee Project as they leave to start a new life. If you have these items to donate, contact Anna Torres.

Greeters: Our ushers are the first to greet and welcome visitors and members on Sunday mornings. If you can provide a friendly smile and greeting, please add your name to the Usher Sign-Up sheet posted in the Fellowship Hall, or contact Luella Gurulé.

Food Donors; Please bring nonperishable food items on the first Sunday of each month. A collection basket will be available at the front of the sanctuary. These donations will be gratefully received by The Storehouse food pantry for distribution to those in need of food.
