A Wider World

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Something tends to happen in our lives when it comes to our perspectives of the world. As we get caught up in our daily pursuits, we become myopic, concentrating only on our own individual worlds. In these scenarios, what happens in our proverbial own backyards unduly becomes our primary focus. But we all know that the world out there is very big. We know that Abraham was called to be a father of nations, leaving behind his smaller world to find a new land. We know Jesus calls us to love neighbors far and near—a command that necessarily pulls us from simply focusing on ourselves. We know that Genesis credits God for creating all of humanity, which means at one level, that everyone is part of the family God created. There is something biblical about expanding our personal worlds.

There are several ways to step out of our personal worlds to engage the wider world around us. We can make a point to move beyond our regular circles. We can travel, read, and build relationships with those far away. And...we can go to worship this coming Sunday (October 6), as we celebrate the 83rd Presbyterian observance of Word Communion Sunday. World Communion Sunday was developed so that we would set our sights on God beyond the purview of our own backyards. Through worship, particularly at the communion feast, we connect with Christians around the world through faithful worship.

This year we will be blessed to be joined in worship by Dori Hjalmarson, Mission Co-Worker from our denomination, serving in Honduras. Dori rejoins us three years later as she preached at Second Presbyterian in 2016, just before going off for missionary service. Dori will bring us insight from what is going on in the backyard of brothers and sisters in Honduras. You are invited to come dressed in international clothing should you have any. And we will be blessed with not one, but two marimbas that will bring music from Central America's worship traditions. It will be a wonderful opportunity to look beyond our own individual worlds, and even beyond the world of our faith community, so we might be blessed by God by engaging the wider human family.

Grace & Peace, Roberto

(Please see the article on Dori later in this newsletter. – Ed.)

Dear Second members,

It was a privilege shared by Pastors Rob, Kay and Clerk George to bring the prayers submitted by Second members and friends to the 2019 Pilgrimage for Unity. Each day your concern or joy was carried by a pilgrim; after three days of walking all the prayers were placed on the communion table and returned to God's own hands. Thank you for allowing the pilgrims to accompany you as they walked and prayed. It was, indeed, a sign of unity.

Peace to you, Kay Huggins

REV. DORI HJALMARSON, HONDURAS MISSION CO-WORKER

*to visit Presbytery of Santa Fe October 6-13

Rev. Dori Kay Hjalmarsen is a Presbyterian Mission Co-Worker in Honduras, supporting lay and pastoral leaders of the Presbyterian Church of Honduras. She will be in Santa Fe Presbytery Oct. 6-13:

- Oct 6: Second Presbyterian Church, morning worship
- Oct 8: Menaul School, morning chapel service and lunch; United Church of Angel Fire, evening
- Oct 9: Rio Rancho, evening program
- Oct 11: Shepherd of the Valley, morning; Westminster, Gallup for evening
- Oct 13: Las Placitas Presbyterian Church, morning worship

She would like to visit other churches and faith groups the rest of that week. Dori can lead Bible studies or classes on mission and partnership. She can talk about immigration and current events in Central America. She is happy to talk to children and youth as well as adults. If your congregation would like to schedule a time for Dori to speak at your church (to your Bible Study, PW Group, Men's Group, Youth Group, Mission Committee, Session), you can contact her directly at dori.hjalmarsen@pcusa.org.

Also, Dori would rather not have to rent a car for the week. If anyone has a vehicle she could borrow, she would be grateful. She would be insured by World Mission. And she can drive a stick shift. Alternatively, if someone would like to play taxi driver for her, that would work too.

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

By Rev. Kay Huggins, Parish Associate

The Last Book of the Bible - Revelation
August 28 - November 20, 2019
Every Wednesday, 11am - Noon

How can thinking Christians who want to live faithfully and responsibly in our contemporary world hear the word of God in Revelation? The answer requires:

- Patience: the literary genre is challenging.
- Information: the historical setting is strange.
- Imagination: to see beyond and through the images to the truth.
- Commitment: to hold Jesus as an interpretive lens.
- Humility: a posture always appropriate before another culture.

Our fall study will be challenging, but engaging! We expect to stretch our minds, hearts and spirits, because, as with every serious study of scripture, we expect to grow in our faith. Our class includes students of all levels – we pause for basic and intricate questions even as we press on chapter by chapter through the last book in the Bible. Join for an occasional class or for a steady experience. Dates and assignments are in the box to the right.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT EDUCATION

by Rev. Kay Huggins, Parish Associate

9:00 – 10:00 am

in the Conference Room of the Candelaria wing

Fall Quarter of The Present Word: Responding to God's Grace

This fall, we begin an overview of God's grace that spans all of Old and New Testaments from Genesis to 2 Peter. Divided into three units – God is Faithful, Responses to God's Faithfulness, and Faith Leads to Holy Living – this quarter provides the class with text to deal with the contemporary issues of everyday faith. The class shares leadership for each Sunday; the discussions are lively; and everyone receives a blessing through participating. Whether young or old, well studied or new to scripture, this class is a unique opportunity to explore scripture in community.

Study guides are provided (large print!) and the class size expands from 7 to 15 depending on your participation!

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

By Ruth Montoya

LET'S CELEBRATE JOHN VANDYKE!

Mark your calendars for Sunday, November 17 as the day set aside to honor John Van Dyke for his dedicated service to Second. John is stepping down from his post as bookkeeper the past twelve years. In addition, John has been a long-time member of the Session and has managed the sound system every Sunday morning until a few months ago. These are among the many ways he has faithfully served and we want to express our appreciation to him. Details are forthcoming.

We are grateful to Chad Poole, a friend of our church for many years, who has been assisting with the transition.

PEACE AND GLOBAL WITNESS OFFERING

Second, along with Christians around the world, will be receiving the Peace and Global Witness Offering on World Communion Sunday, October 6. This is one of the four special offerings of the Presbyterian Church (USA) which helps to advance programs that advocate for justice, peace, and equality for everyone. 25% of the offering remains with our congregation, 25% with the Synod and 50% supports global ministries. Thank you for supporting this offering and let us work together as active peacemakers to offer the peace of Christ at all times and in all ways.

20/20 VISION – STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN THEME

The Stewardship and Finance Committee is preparing to launch the Stewardship Campaign for next year in which we envision the ways we can become involved in the mission and ministry of our church in the year 2020. You are encouraged to consider volunteering as lay leaders, ushers, teaching Sunday School, singing in the choir, Wings for L.I.F.E., cooking and serving at Project Share, just to list a few. We are ever grateful for your monetary contributions throughout the year which enable us to sustain our local church, as well as contributing to the worldwide mission of the PCUSA.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

by Don Bixby and Karmen Van Dyke

World Communion will be celebrated on October 6th

The first Sunday in October is designated as World Communion Sunday, which celebrates our oneness in Christ with all our brothers and sisters around the world. Paul tells us that we are to “discern the body” when we partake of Holy Communion, mindful that we note our relationship to all our brothers and sisters in Christ in the celebration.

World Communion Sunday (originally called World Wide Communion Sunday) is a gift of the Presbyterian Church to the larger ecumenical church. The first celebration occurred at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, PA, in 1933 where Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr served as pastor. Dr. Kerr’s younger son, the Rev. Dr. Donald Craig Kerr, who is pastor emeritus of the Roland Park Presbyterian Church in Baltimore, was sixteen in 1933. He has related that World Communion Sunday grew out of the Division of Stewardship at Shadyside. It was their attempt to bring churches together in a service of Christian unity—in which everyone might receive both inspiration and information, and above all, to know how important the Church of Jesus Christ is, and how each congregation is interconnected one with another. Celebration of World Wide Communion Sunday was adopted as a denominational practice in the Presbyterian Church (US) in 1936. Churches in other denominations were invited to celebrate with us from the beginning, but it wasn't until 1940 when the Department of Evangelism of the Federal Council of Churches (a predecessor body of the National Council of Churches) promoted extending the celebration to a number of churches around the world that the practice became widespread. Today, World Communion Sunday is celebrated around the world.

Second will celebrate World Communion Sunday with a Central American theme. The Rev. Dori Hjalmarson, missionary to Honduras will be in our pulpit. Steve Chavez and Hovey Corbin will once again add to the international flavor with their marimbas, as we celebrate Holy Communion with Christians around the world. You are invited to wear clothing from, or representing, other countries and cultures, including Latin America.

Food Bank Donations

The first Sunday of every month we celebrate Holy Communion and collect non-perishable food items for the regional food bank. In July, we delivered 70 pounds of food. In August, we delivered 23.8 pounds, September – 126 pounds.

What happens to these food donations?

- The food delivered to Roadrunner Food Bank (RRFB) or a designated location point in the Albuquerque metro.
- Volunteers sort donated food inside the RRFB warehouse and stack food on pallets.
- Partner agencies (food pantries/soup kitchens) order food from the RRFB online system, similar to any online grocery store.
- The RRFB fleet delivers the ordered food items to each partner agency at a set date and time.
- RRFB clients receive food at hundreds of partner distribution sites across the state, which includes food pantries, soup kitchens, shelters, group homes, schools, low-income housing sites, senior centers and health care clinics.

Mark the first Sunday of the month on your calendar to remind yourself of the many people in the city and across the state who rely on this system for adequate food.

WINGS for L.I.F.E. International is our guest at Second Church every second and fourth Monday of the month. The group provides an empowerment program of life skills, education, training, and support for children and family members of prisoners (returning citizens) and at-risk youth. Some of the educational topics addressed include: single parenting, finances—how to stretch a dollar, discipline, acceptance issues, prison visits, feeding a family, substance abuse and signs of abuse, reintegration and reunification issues, legal issues, work/job issues, and anything else that is of interest to the group. About 75 people gathered for dinner and a program on August 12th and 26th. Guests are welcomed and encouraged to become part of the empowerment. Contact Martha Powers or www.wingsforlifeinternational.org, 505-298-0985.

Help Wanted

Flowers for Worship: A new sign-up sheet is posted in the Fellowship Hall, where you can choose a date to bring flowers for the service. It is our tradition that flowers for worship are provided to honor a person or event of significance, such as the memory of a departed loved one or an anniversary. Flowers should be delivered well before the beginning of the service. These flowers may then be taken to shut-ins, if the “contributor” so desires.

Notes of Thanks

Many people contribute to the worship experience and fellowship life of Second Church, often without notice or recognition. We acknowledge with gratitude the dedication of:

- Candy Deuble, who has tended the peace garden weekly to give us a view of natural beauty from the hallway windows and for special outdoor services
- Bob Deuble for the guitar lessons he has been giving to enrich the lives of several members of our church family
- Bob Romero who keeps the candles filled with fuel

- Nancy and Toby Montoya who fill and empty the baptismal font
- Luella Gurule' who schedules the ushers for each Sunday Service
- To whoever brought in the vase collection in response to an earlier request.

Hospitality

Fellowship is an important element of our church community. The gatherings after worship for coffee and conversation are in need of assistance to provide food and help with set-up and especially cleanup on Sunday mornings. A sign-up sheet is posted in the Fellowship Hall, where you can choose a date to contribute to this valuable ministry. For questions, contact Ella Porragas or Sandra Duran.

Next Worship and Music Committee Meeting

You are cordially invited to attend the Worship and Music Committee meeting, scheduled for Monday, September 30, 10:00 a.m. You might be surprised to learn the background of our order of worship, and the research, knowledge, and creativity that goes into how our worship and music services are developed.
