A Gift Exchange

“When we give cheerfully and accept gratefully, everyone is blessed.” - Maya Angelou

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

The title of this article may conjure thoughts of Christmas. But that would make us a month early. However, November is also a month with a history of gift exchange. Even if it wanted to, November has no chance of escaping its identity as a month of giving and receiving. In many places, it is a fall harvest month in which the hard work of planting and cultivating is exchanged for a yield. Then there is the Thanksgiving holiday, predicated on the exchange of a harvest and the cooperation between members of the Wampanoag tribe and the pilgrims. With gratitude, the yield and strategies for winter living were shared with the European settlers, and they partook in a three-day-feast in which gratitude abounded. And for churches, November is stewardship emphasis month, during which we “cheerfully” consider what we will contribute to the mission and ministry of the church, and in doing so, recognize with gratitude, all the ways we are “blessed.”

Like much of her writing, the late Maya Angelou’s above quote is succinct while communicating so much. She identifies gratitude at the core of authentic giving and receiving. We give cheerfully when we give from a place of gratitude. We receive gratefully when we receive from that very same place. Scripture is replete with passages about gratitude and thanksgiving. A few especially worth visiting include: Psalm 136:1-3 (one of many Psalms), Luke 17:11-18 (a passage we will hear about this month in worship), II Corinthians 9:10-15, I Thessalonians 5:18.

There is something incredible about gratitude. It is accessible to anyone, regardless of circumstances. In fact, it is often experienced more abundantly by those with less than by those who have more. When we maintain gratitude in difficult times, it helps propel us forward while maintaining a sense of who we are. According to the American-Romanian writer Elie Wiesel, who lived in two Nazi concentration camps: “When a person doesn't have gratitude, something is missing in his or her humanity.” Those words maintain added significance coming from someone who lived through such a harsh human reality.

Our stewardship theme this year is “20/20 vision.” As we metaphorically plant seeds for the coming year, we seek God's clarity and direction for our church’s journey ahead. November 17 will be Dedication Sunday—the Sunday we bring forward our financial pledges for 2020 during worship. As we all consider what we plan to pledge, may we be shaped by deep gratitude and thanksgiving—delighting in God's goodness and work in our wonderful congregation.

Grace & Peace, Roberto

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

By Karmen Van Dyke and Don Bixby

Worship Services in November. Stewardship will be an important part of the first three services of November. Leadership of the Stewardship Committee will be liturgists, and “witnesses to stewardship”, Esther Lopez, Francis and Susie Chang, as well as words of faith from members who cannot regularly attend, will be presented.

All Saints Day November 3 The liturgical color for this service is White. As in previous years, images of loved ones who have passed since last November will be projected and memorialized during the service. If a loved one has passed since last November, you are invited to bring photos to the office well before the 3rd. You are invited to bring photos of those who have been remembered from previous years. These images will be placed on tables at the front of the sanctuary and become part of our celebration of the Cloud of Witnesses who have enriched our lives. The service will include Holy Communion. The color for the middle two Sundays of November is Green for what is designated “Ordinary Time.” We will, however, be using an embroidered Turkish table cover graciously loaned by Ruth Montoya, with plenty of accents to celebrate the autumn season.

A Healing Service will be part of worship on November 10 as we prepare for the holidays. Scripture strongly affirms ministries of healing. Those who minister spiritual healing are channels of God's love. A Service of Healing is not necessarily a service of curing, but it provides an atmosphere in which healing can happen. Anointing with oil shows the power of touch, and is an act invoking the healing love of God. The oil points beyond itself and those doing the anointing to the action of the Holy Spirit and the presence of the healing Christ, who is God's Anointed One.

November 17 is Dedication Sunday, the culmination of our Stewardship Campaign – 20/20 Vision. The Stewardship Committee will be providing details elsewhere in this newsletter.

Christ the King Sunday November 24 climaxes the liturgical year. Although originally a Roman Catholic Holiday instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XI, it has since been adopted by other Christian denominations as well. The purpose of this holiday is to acknowledge Jesus Christ as the “King of all kings” and it was originally intended as a way to bring God back into a secular world. It is celebrated with Holy Communion on the final Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Sunday before Advent. The color of the banners for this celebration is changed from the Green of ordinary time to White. By the next week we will be entering the season of Advent when the color will be Purple.

Support Second! The programs and worship services of Second Presbyterian Church are maintained by the large and small gifts and acts of thoughtfulness by many people. For these gifts we are all grateful. You can support our programs in many ways, but there are signup sheets for three ways in the Fellowship Hall: 1) providing flowers, 2) serving as ushers, 3) helping with hospitality. You might want to choose dates with special significance.

FOOD DONATIONS FIRST SUNDAY EVERY MONTH

By Don Bixby and Karmen Van Dyke

On the first Sunday of the month you are invited to bring nonperishable foods that will be taken to the Albuquerque food bank to help feed the many in our community who are without adequate food.

What happens to these food donations?

- The food is dropped off at Roadrunner Food Bank (RRFB) or a designated location point in the Albuquerque metro.
- Volunteers sort donated food inside the RRFB warehouse and stack food on pallets.
- Partner agencies (food pantries/soup kitchens) order food from the RRFB online system, similar to any online grocery store.
- The RRFB fleet delivers the ordered food items to each partner agency at a set date and time.

Food Donations by Month	Pounds Delivered
July	70
August	23.8
September	126
October	150
Total since July	299.8

RRFB clients receive food at hundreds of partner distribution sites across the state, which includes food pantries, soup kitchens, shelters, group homes, schools, low-income housing sites, senior centers and health care clinics. Mark the first Sunday of the month on your calendar to remind yourself of the many people in the city and across the state who rely on this system for adequate food.

HOMELESSNESS WILL MAKE YOU SICK AND CAN KILL YOU

By Don Bixby and Karmen Van Dyke

The statistics are grim. According to the New Mexico Coalition to End Homelessness, over 20,000 persons – over 2 % of Bernalillo County residents – will experience homelessness during the year. For over three decades, Albuquerque Health Care for the Homeless (AHCH) has served our community as the only health care organization in Central New Mexico dedicated exclusively to providing services to homeless people. When people experience homelessness, access to adequate health care can mean the difference between getting back on your feet or dying. AHCH believes all people are entitled to health care, including those living in cars or motels, couch surfing, on the street, in shelters and in transitional housing. Having access to medical care for chronic conditions like diabetes, high blood pressure, chronic pain, is essential.

AHCH provides critical services to over 7,000 men, women and children every year. By addressing the health-related causes of homelessness, AHCH makes it possible for people to find solutions to end their homelessness. While the needs are many, Second is focusing on a collection of towels and stockings for men, women and children, during the Advent Season. The clinic Resources Center has showers for the homeless and towels are always in demand. For folks who are out on the street all day, a fresh pair of socks is a treasure. Please put bath towels and socks on your holiday shopping list for the homeless. For questions or further information contact Pat Bixby.

Fall Quarter of The Present Word: Responding to God's Grace

This fall, we begin an overview of God's grace that spans all of Old and New Testaments from Genesis to II Peter. Divided into three units – God is Faithful, Responses to God's Faithfulness, and Faith Leads to Holy Living – this quarter provides the class with text to deal with the contemporary issues of everyday faith. The class shares leadership for each Sunday; the discussions are lively; and everyone receives a blessing through participating. Whether young or old, well studied or new to scripture, this class is a unique opportunity to explore scripture in community. Study guides are provided (large print!) and the class size expands from 7 to 15 depending on your participation!

The theme for WCD is based on John 4:23a — “But the time is coming— and is here!” and focuses on global peace and justice. As women of faith we have a responsibility to reach beyond Christian denominations to brothers and sisters who are Muslim, Buddhist, Jewish and many others. It is a move from ecumenical to an interfaith orientation. Let us, through mutual respect, create an inclusive community that is just, caring and supportive within this new paradigm. In this transformational time, let us courageously resolve to love for peace.

Come, bring a friend of another faith and be blessed! Bring two friends and be doubly blessed!

Remember to bring your “Nickels for National” that you’ve been collecting all year long!
