The Reverend Doctor Robert B Woodruff
Head of Staff of Second Presbyterian Church.

July 2020

Dear Second Church family,

You are invited to worship July 5th at Menaul School! It will be our first opportunity for in-person worship since March 8th—nearly four months. Know that significant planning is going into ensuring safety for the event. We will be blessed by music, prayer, scripture and sermon as we gather to honor and worship God. But know that we will not be able to hug and congregate as we normally do. We have to respect social distancing guidelines. Chairs will be set up that need to remain apart—the only exception is for parents with children. A time will come when we can return to social normalcy. But for now, to keep our congregation safe for in-person worship, utmost caution is critical.

If you are ill or do not feel comfortable coming, please stay home and wait for future worship opportunities. Remember that the state of New Mexico denotes people 65 or older as more vulnerable to COVID-19. As a precaution, ushers will take everyone's temperature with non-contact thermometers. If you are unable, or think it best not to join us this time, the service will either be live-streamed or recorded, and put on the website. Though it is the first Sunday of the month, we will not have communion. Below are important details for worship. If you have any questions, you can always call Pastor Rob (505-363-5368); Worship Chair, Allan Holmquist (505-401-2790); or Music Director, Karmen Van Dyke (505-301-0033).

When: July 5th, 9:00am. Please arrive between 8:30-8:45 am.

Where: Hart Park, Menaul School. Please park in southern parking lots of the Menaul Campus.

RSVP (by July 3): Call or email Beverly Chavez 505-688-6519 or bchavez49@gmail.com Capacity: Up to 100 people can be accommodated.

Safety: Masks are required! Extra masks will be available along with hand sanitizer. Chairs will be distanced and can only be moved together by parents with children for supervision.

Bulletin: There will be no bulletin. Song sheets will be waiting on the chairs.

Ushers: As you arrive, an usher will greet you at your car, and escort you to your seat. After the benediction, remain in your seats and an usher will escort you to your vehicle.

Offering: You will be encouraged to give online, send a check to the church, or a plate will be available for dropping off during arrival or departure.

From the CDC: "Consider holding services...in a large, well-ventilated areas or outdoors."

PRAYER LIST

PLEASE KEEP THESE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS IN YOUR PRAYERS

Anyone wishing a phone call or a visit with Pastor Rob, please feel free to let him know, pastor@secondpresabq.org, or Beverly Chavez, by calling the Church at (505)242-8005.

FOOD BANK, GARDEN, LITURGICAL COLORS

By Don Bixby

Food Bank Donations

When we are in normal times, we celebrate Holy Communion on the first Sunday of every month and collect non-perishable food items for the regional food bank. In the current epidemic, we are missing Holy Communion and our usual food collections. Yet the calls on the food bank system are increasing as more people are losing employment and finding their food resources limited. At the same time shopping challenges and shortages affect donations to the banks.

With a focus on the needs of seniors, Roadrunner Food Bank has provided nearly 8,000 food boxes to Senior sites. They continue to run drive-through mobile food pantries, and work with NM Aging and Long-Term Services Department.

If you are able to help, here is a short list of actions you can take to support the community needs for food assistance:

1. Make your own collection of food at home until the current epidemic is controlled.
2. Deliver food directly to drop boxes at:
 - Roadrunner Food Bank 5840 Office Blvd NE, Albuquerque, NM 87109; open M-F 9-4
 - The Storehouse, 106 Broadway Blvd SE, Albuquerque, NM 87102; open Wed-Sat 9-12
 - Other collections sites about which you are aware
3. Send a check directly to these food banks
4. Send a check to Second, designated for the food bank.

Garden Report

The church gardens have been outstanding and the only disappointment is not having Sunday services to easily pass the abundance around! I have done my best to share with whomever happens to be at church when I am working in the garden and I have dropped off produce with some folks on my travels around town. Our TransAsylee residents (over the Candelaria Wing) have got a good start on their garden bed as well, with flourishing squash and sweet potato plants. Very green and lush looking. They have also planted two rose bushes and have named their apartment La Casa de la Rosa.

Be well! Don.

JOIN US FOR ZOOM FELLOWSHIP, MOST SUNDAYS AT 11:15AM

Relish the delight of seeing so many church family faces via Zoom video-conferencing! After greeting everyone, the children are moved to their own Zoom room for Sunday Scholl, recently using 'The Box'. And, we're all encouraged to speak up in our break-out rooms, to talk, laugh, discuss the topic of the day, and express our faith! We've had up to 41 attendees! The link to the Zoom Fellowship meeting is distributed to the FELLOWSHIP email group. If you're not a member of the FELLOWSHIP email discussion group, you can request to be added using the 'JOIN FELLOWSHIP' block of the "CONTACT US" page of our website.

When? The MONTH of July

Where? Wherever you want

Who? Your family/intergenerational

What? Vacation Bible School about EXILE and RETURN

How? Each Monday in July a lesson will be posted on First’s and Second’s websites including:

STORY told by staff from First Presbyterian

AND

MUSIC for each lesson, presented by children and staff from Second

In addition:

ACTIVITIES – Suggestions, a few supplies, and a book on “Praying in Color” will be delivered to each family.

First Week: We visit Jerusalem and Solomon’s Temple, Israel at its peak.

Second Week: God’s people are marched away from Jerusalem.

Third Week: God does a new thing with God’s people.

Fourth Week: God’s people are allowed to return from exile.

Finally... This Vacation Bible School is planned as a WONDERFULLY FLEXIBLE Christian Education experience. Activities can be done in one day—or seven—or even spread over “the fall”. The theme is especially appropriate in this year when we are all experiencing exile—and needing God with us in exile and eventual return.

Delivery of boxes are planned for July 3, 4, or 5. If you want to be part of this summer activity and have not receive one by end of day July 5, please phone Karmen (505)301-0033.

Sponsorship: 2020 Bible School was planned by representatives from First Presbyterian, Second Presbyterian, Shepherd of the Valley, and St. Andrew, with the final product crafted by Libby Whitely, Christian Education staff at First Presbyterian.

FELLOWSHIP HOUR!

Alice and Conrad send their pictorial greetings!

My summer/isolation started out a little strange and uncomfortable but soon got in the groove of staying at home--not that that's a hard thing to do--but of course, when I CAN go out, I don't and now that it's a little more restricted, I WANT to go out 😞. Mike has been busy with softball practice twice a week in two groups of five and spread out throughout two softball fields. That keeps him busy and he gets to socialize with the "boys"--65 and over. I learned how to kinda-sorta use Zoom--there's no end to my semi-talents. It's always a pleasure seeing the Elders on Zoom and having small conversations before the Session Meetings start. There's nothing like being in person, though.

Our summer started out with an adventure. We had a hummingbird mama make a nest on our outdoor bell chime and soon we were watching her nest. Then we saw 2 baby hummingbirds! All that in about two weeks. Soon the babies started venturing to the edge of the nest and within two days--it seemed--they were gone. Mike and I are now empty nesters 😊. It's a wonderous joy to see God's work in action!

Amanda, Joey and Isaac have moved into a 2-bedroom apartment off of Montgomery. I've been helping with the packing, moving, cleaning and trying to set up the new place. Thank goodness for the love and patience God gave me the day I was born!

Missing everyone at church and fellowship. Sending you all God's peace! Stay healthy and safe. Love you all!

Mickey

George Huggins

In the beginning, I was covered up. -All- my volunteer organizations wanted and needed a Zoom account. I think I can log into the Zoom website with four different IDs. Then I had to learn how to use Zoom, and teach them all (most of them) how to use Zoom. Then, Session began meeting -every- week, and part of my Clerk's report soon included which minutes I hadn't done, yet!

Kay and I intend to remain in our family “bubble” to ensure we can provide care for our two grandchildren while their parents continue to tele-work from their home. My personal devotions are a bit indirect, as I’m the camera operator for the Daily Devotions that Kay produces!

I continue to enjoy God’s beautiful New Mexico. -Most- Thursday’s I participate in my hobby of recording interments in (sometimes remote) cemeteries. It’s funner when Kay goes with me and packs a lunch! We’ve recently visited cemeteries at Torreon Navajo Mission, San Luis, San Ysidro at Gonzales Ranch, Palma Townsite, Milagro, and San Jose on the Pecos NW of Santa Rosa. We were turned away from Cabezon and Derramadero cemeteries because they were on fenced private property.

My faith remains strong, but I miss the synergy of faith shared with you of my faith community. Please stay safe. Know you are loved.

Carla Drake

I will be traveling to Chacon this coming Saturday to attend my sister’s son’s funeral. He passed in November but she was waiting to come from Florida. He will be buried by my son and my mom and dad. My son will come from California and one of her sons from Florida. Her other son lives in Hawaii and won't be able to come.

MAY GOD BLESS ALL US AND KEEP US SAFE

Eli & Carol Lopez

First and foremost, we thank God that our entire family has remained healthy. We have done our best to stay home and done our part to practice social distancing, (this is a difficult task for the socially-oriented Lopez clan). We have used Zoom online meetings for a wedding (Andrea & Cory), birthdays, and just staying in touch as a family.

Our major breakout and highlight get together was a bitter sweet experience on a beautiful Saturday morning in the majestic village of Truchas, NM, where we observed two Christian services. The first was a Witness to the Resurrection for David Lopez. The immediate Lopez Family gathered for the internment of David, laying him to rest and returning him to his Creator. The other, more joyful service, was the sacrament of baptism of Reed Aaron Bowers, David's grandson, on that same day and place. Tessie and family are very grateful to our church community for all the love and support shown to them at this time. We also wish to thank Pastor Rob for conducting the service and including his own family as well.

We continue to stay isolated, as much as possible, and greatly miss our church community. Please take care of yourselves and stay healthy. We pray that we will all be able to gather together for worship and fellowship as soon and as safely as possible.

Bev Molo

We have been busy this week. I have been working on greeting cards to congregants as well as preparing the weekly mail of Pastor Rob’s weekly announcements and including the worship bulletin for Sunday’s video-conferencing worship with the Presbytery. The highlight of our week is going to visit in person and delivering the Upper Room to many of our folks who are not connected to the internet, yesterday and today, and to be continued in the next two days. This has been a ministry that has blessed many folks at home as well as ours. We spread the good Word, lift up many with a smile and a kind word and bring a lot of joy and peace to our fine sisters and brothers in Christ. Oh, how we wish we could embrace each and every one of them! Many of them are grateful to receive the mailings. They read them all and enjoy receiving them. One person told us that if she knows the song in the bulletin, she will go to her piano and play the song!! How beautiful & special is that! This has been a blessing in my life as well to know that I can bring a little bit of sunshine to so many others.

I thank God for our Church, our Pastors and all the folks that have made a difference in so many lives during the pandemic. Let's keep the faith!! I thank Kay and her Daily Devotions for the encouragement in making a difference in someone else's life!! Thank you!

Reme Molo

First of all, thanks to the Grace of God and the many blessings that I am able to write this.

One of the things that has become our favorite things to do now is to gather around to watch the Daily devotions and the Bible studies. Truly felt blessed and grateful to Kay and George for bringing these blessings into our midst. The energy, knowledge, and enthusiasm Kay brings to try to educate us and to strengthen us in our faith are truly admirable. To me, 1 Corinthians, is a very challenging and tough topic to approach.

I have started working from home for over a year now but this pandemic has brought a totally different meaning to working from home. Considering this, it makes me look back that going to the office is not really that bad.

It could be a blessing in disguise, my son furloughed from his work in Miami but has been staying with us since the start of the pandemic. I have been able to show him the bicycling pathways as we cycle through the many truly beautiful paths through out Albuquerque. Although he grew up here in Albuquerque but he really has not seen Albuquerque this way.

As a Deacon, it has opened up my eyes to have learned the dedication and perspective from my wife through all these. Her zeal to try to be closer with fellow congregants have been truly inspirational to me.

Lastly, I guess I have been seeing a bit of TV lately that some ads and jingles have been stuck in my mind, including an annoying one from Arby's "we have the meats".

Psalm 46:10 (NIV) "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth."

Anna Torres

Most days I get up around 6:15, water my plants in my yard, and go for a 30-minute walk with Jack. After breakfast, I like to ride my bike around the neighborhood. I feel more energized when I do that, plus, I need to strengthen my knee replacements.

I'm in the house with air conditioning going usually by 10:00am. I don't like the heat. Some days I have my grandkids and we get in the pool. They're full of energy and I normally nap with them. We read lots of books. Jack reads to them also.

Lately, we have been going to El Valle to my parents' home. We love it up there. It's always at least ten degrees cooler than Bernalillo. Sometimes we take the grandkids and sometimes we don't. They love it there, too!

We continue to social distance. I go to the grocery store two to three times a week. Pretty much we just spend time alone or with Mario, Rebecca and Isaac and Julianna.

We miss being at the church with everyone, but we know we need to stay healthy. I am grateful to Kay and George for the daily devotions. I listen at night and I feel calmer and happier when I listen to Kay. Thank you both for providing this special time for us to connect with our church community.

SECOND CHURCH SPOTLIGHT:

Solema Newton

Solema Newton, along with her husband Tom, joined Second Presbyterian Church December 27, 1953. For almost sixty-seven years, Solema has served the church in many capacities. She was ordained as a Deacon in 1964, a role in which she currently serves. She was ordained as an Elder in 1971. As an elder, Solema was the clerk-of-session for six, three-year terms. Karmen estimates Solema has sung in the choir for 65 years. Among other things, Solema has helped with all of the more than fifty Martineztown House of Neighborly Service (MHNS) salad luncheons and all of the Christmas Bazaars/Mexican Dinners, and has served the Presbytery and Synod in various capacities. Solema was a commissioner from the Presbytery to the 2001 General Assembly in Kentucky. You have undoubtedly eaten Solema's food, from beans and enchiladas to raisin bars and rum cakes. She is an excellent cook.

Many of you remember Solema's husband, Tom, who also served the church in a myriad of ways. After retiring, Tom worked tirelessly at the MHNS (where Family Promise now resides) and became a lifetime board member. Tom moved on to the Church Triumphant on November 25, 2015, and is still greatly missed. Solema and Tom had two children: Tommy and Bruce. Solema now has nine grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, and four great-great grandchildren. All of her family lives in the area except her grandson Jason, who lives in Utah. Many of you know Jason from when Tom used to bring him as a helper to church, and granddaughter Marisol and great-granddaughter Camila you know from worship. Solema is a consummate example of a lifetime of faith and service—putting so much of her heart and soul into Second's community. Her corporate memory of our congregation is incredible. We are so blessed to have her as a treasure among us!

CHILDREN'S MUSIC MINISTRY

By Debi Eisenhour

It's been a long, several months of quiet for those of us who love singing with and hearing the voices of choral singers, young and old. After attending the virtual Presbyterian Association of Musicians conference this last week, we were inspired to try something new with our children's choir. We are starting a virtual Children's Music Ministry, starting Wednesday, July 8, 1:00pm, for a 30-minute Zoom class for our children's choir to meet, play music, and see each other! The plan is to learn about music, music notation and rhythm, while preparing to do music when the opportunity to worship together returns.

I'll be sending out a Zoom invitation to all the kiddos in the Children's Choir this next week, so be looking for it in your email! If you have any questions, just contact me at d2jheisen@q.com or call me at 307-1791.

STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

Greetings to all our Christian members and faithful donors. Your working committee members continue to perform all the usual and required tasks to keep our Church community functioning. Ruth diligently continues to coordinate the counters and make the bank deposits. Kudos to all the dedicated counters that continue to come into Church and take care of these essential tasks in spite of our current concern with COVID-19. We certainly appreciate the dedication to these tasks.

Lynn, our paying treasure, diligently pays our bills, keeps our bank accounts straight and gets our staff paid. Lynn was also involved in applying for the Payroll Protection Plan (PPP) federal loan funds. We have received these funds and they have certainly been a welcome income to keep our budget solvent during this pandemic. Chad Poole, Randall Korver-Glenn and Lynn will be working on applying for a waiver to transfer this loan to a grant for our church. We pray for this transition.

In the midst of the COVID-19 Pandemic and our inability to physically congregate weekly to worship, share handshakes and abrazos, our technology permits us to gather virtually as a Presbytery, and again via the Fellowship Hour shared by Second, has been a blessing to all who are able to participate.

Our committee plans to meet soon to assess our current budget status. We will then make necessary adjustments and decisions to carry us through the remainder of the year. We will keep you informed with a monthly financial update. We will also work on sending mid-year statements to you faithful donors. Be safe and stay healthy.
