Shedding

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Every year on Ash Wednesday, we are beckoned to join in a Lenten pilgrimage. The season of Lent is a forty-day journey with Christ that begins in the wildness and leads to the cross of Calvary. It is a journey upon which we are invited to travel light. It is difficult to progress very far spiritually when we are encumbered with “too much stuff.” Stuff can be material goods, but it can also be anything that takes our focus off of the divine. You are aware of the common practice of giving something up for Lent. Perhaps that tradition is informed by the idea that we cannot journey too far if we are carrying too much.

I am just getting into a book that Pastor Kay recommended called Without Oars: Casting Off into a Life of Pilgrimage, by Wesley Granberg-Michaelson. Though I am only a couple of chapters in, it is clear that the emphasis on pilgrimage is the recognition that to live life on a faith journey, is to always be in “search for the soul’s true home,” (Pg. 3). On the journey of life, we can travel as passive passengers or we can adventure as pilgrims.

Lent is an appropriate season to be a pilgrim. And as mentioned, to be a pilgrim, we have to let a lot of things go. Granberg-Michaelson calls it “shedding.” You might say that seasonal shedding is not reserved only for cats and dogs. Shedding is, “a spiritual commitment to leave behind all of our preconceived ideas, arguments, agendas, and biases, holding them in suspense, while asking only one question: “Am I indifferent to everything besides God’s will?” (Pg13). If you have attended our Ash Wednesday service, you recall the practice of writing down something we need to let go of, and burning it in a fire pit outside the church. That practice is a way we can act out our letting go.

For Lent, it may be easier to give up chocolate, alcohol, or fried food (and those indeed can be worthwhile goals). But this year, while in the middle of a pandemic, our minds might be more spiritually inclined. Especially since we have already lost some things that we had previously taken for granted. If you are to conceive of Lent, and life for that matter, as a pilgrimage: what is going on in your life that is absorbing you instead God’s will? What is keeping you from fully loving God, neighbor, and self? An aimless pursuit? A prominent insecurity? Unresolved anger or fear? That is a question that maybe only you can answer. But when you do, you may have just identified what to leave behind so you can take the first steps with Jesus into Lent.

Grace & Peace, Roberto

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY IN FEBRUARY AND MARCH

You are invited to Zoom Bible Study: Wednesday in February and March:
Wednesdays at 4pm or 8pm – register at kay.huggins@me.com

This spring we will conclude our study of parables during the four Wednesdays of February; then devote March to a review of the passion narratives of the four gospels. Since there are five Wednesdays in March, the final Wednesday, during holy week, will be an open (but directed!) conversation on the material studied thus far in the Zoom Bible Study: Joel, Beatitudes, Parables (Part 1 & 2), Biblical Prayers, and the Passion Narratives.

As we continue the study of the core themes of Jesus' message (that is a polite way of saying: why he was crucified) we find his teaching merging with his pattern of living...until as the end of his life becomes a parable signifying much more than we can even imagine.

- Feb. 3, The Challenge of the Hour: The Parable of the Debtor (Matt. 5:25), the Parable of the Unjust Steward (Luke 16:1-18) and the Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16: 19-31)
- Feb. 10, Realized Discipleship: Twin Parables of the Treasure in the field and the Pearl (Matthew 13:44-45); the Parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), the Description (parable) of the Last Judgment (Matt. 25: 31-46)
- Feb. 17, Via Dolorosa and Consummation: The shift after Peter's Confession, Similes in Jesus' way: no shelter (Luke 9:58), the cup he must drink (Mark 10:38. 14:36), the stone rejected (Mark 8:31), the wheat must die (John 12:25); and the Consummation, The Parable of the Tares among the Wheat (Matt. 13:24-30), and the Parable of the Fishing Net (Matt. 47-50)
- Feb. 24, Jesus' Parabolic Actions: the entry into Jerusalem and the cleansing of the Temple (Mark 11: 1-11, 15-19), and the Last Supper (Luke 22: 14-20 and John 13:1-20)

With the core teachings from the parable ringing in our hearts, we move into the Gospel passion narrative...moving in chronological order.

- March 3, The Passion according to Mark, read Mark 14:32-15:47
- March 10, The Passion according to Matthew, read Matthew 26:36-27:66
- March 17, The Passion according to Luke, read Luke 22:39-23:56
- March 24, The Passion according to John, read John 18:1-19:42
- March 31, The Core Teaching and the Passion reconsidered: an invitation to conversation.

Dear brothers & sisters:

"Grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ"

The Presbyterian-Reformed Church in Cuba (IPRC), through its General Council, wants to express their solidarity with this sister church, its congregations, Presbyteries, Synods and General Assembly, especially for each of its members and families as well as with the American people.

We are writing to you to share our concern about recent events that have occurred in the United States in the wake of the presidential elections.

We have been following each of the events closely and have accompanied them in prayer because these actions endangered not only the American people but also the rest of the world.

We trust that the Churches in general and the PC(USA) in particular can help the healing of American society and to restore the historical values that have characterized it.

We pray that the Lord of Life will empower you for this work which will help the process of reconciliation that is so needed.

In the love of Jesus,

THANKS BE TO GOD FROM CLARABELLE PADILLA

On Jan 19th a man broke into my Mom's house, Ida Padilla. He stole TVs from the living room and two bedrooms. Thankfully, he skipped going in and taking the TV from my Mom's room as she was alone watching TV and never knew the house was burglarized until her Granddaughter arrived about 6:15pm. God protected her from this man who left a huge knife on the kitchen table. We are blessed she was unharmed!

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED

WE MEET AGAIN ON MARCH 5TH at 9:30 a.m. via ZOOM*.

World Day of Prayer: "Build on a Strong Foundation"

We will meet at 9:30 for a fellowship time with the program beginning at 10:00. The service is written by the women of Venuatu, with the focus of "Living Wisely." We are urged to read Matthew 7:24-27, where Jesus tells the story about the kingdom of heaven, using the image of a house and the land on which it sits. Choosing the land on which their house sits is an important decision for the people of Venuatu, as the terrain and the climate is crucial in a tropical archipelago located in the South Pacific Ocean prone to earthquakes, cyclones (latest in 2020), volcanic eruptions and rising sea levels. Land is not viewed as a thing to be owned but as vital to the existence of humans and animals in sustaining their livelihood.

Monetary donations will go to World Day of Prayer International.

*Zoom instructions: The host will send a link to me, your editor, and I will send it to all who are on our current email list. For those who want to join, but are NOT on the current email list, let me know at mstoops@swcp.com and I will add you to the list for the gathering.

FEBRUARY IN THE SEASONS OF THE CHURCH

By Don Bixby

Even though February is the shortest month of the year, there are several liturgical highlights in the Church Season this month. February opens with us still in Ordinary Time, which is designated by the color green. You might catch a glimpse of green paraments in the Presbytery Collaborative Worship Service taped at Second. In this season, the Communion Table is brightened by the handmade Rio Grande weaving recalling the Hispanic history and flavor of our fellowship. We are grateful to Ruth Montoya for the loan of this beautiful heirloom.

On February 14th, the liturgical color is white as we celebrate the Transfiguration of the Lord. Transfiguration Sunday celebrates the revelation of God in Jesus Christ and Christ's fulfillment of the law and the prophets. Jesus' radiant appearance on the mountaintop evokes the devouring fire of the glory of the LORD at Mount Sinai. God claims him as a beloved child, in whom God is well pleased. In some accounts of this event, an image of Christ is flanked by Moses, representing the law, and Elijah, representing the prophetic tradition, demonstrating the relationship of the Word of God to the tradition of Israel as set forth in the Hebrew Scriptures. In Jesus' transfiguration, we are assured that Jesus is the hope of the ages, who fulfilled the Law given through Moses, the one dreamed of by the prophets, of whom Elijah is the greatest.

Just days later, on the 17th, we come to Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Lenten Season. The liturgical color is purple for repentance, with a public act of confession and contrition. In some traditions, Ash Wednesday is a fast day, beginning the Lenten time of fasting and preparations that culminate in Easter. Acknowledging that all have fallen short of the glory of God, we stand in solidarity as fellow creatures before our Creator, acutely aware of our mortality. In many traditions, this is symbolized through the imposition of ashes — drawing a cross on one's forehead with the ashes. In past years we have used the ashes from the palm fronds of the previous Palm Sunday. The ashes symbolize the dust and broken debris of our lives. Plans are still being made about how we at Second will observe Ash Wednesday as well as other aspects of the Lenten and Easter Season.

Trusting Christ's resurrection, we listen for the Word of God in the time-honored stories of the church's Lenten journey. We follow Jesus into the wilderness, resist temptation, fast, and proceed "on the way" to Jerusalem and the cross. Our Lenten journey is one metanoia ("turning around"), of changing directions from self-serving toward the self-giving way of the cross.

Ecclesiastes 3:20 – "All go to the same place; all come from dust, and to dust all return."

DOUBLE HAPPINESS CHINESE TAKE-OUT

by Susie Chang

EPIC's Double Happiness Chinese Take-Out will be open for business on Saturday, February 13, 2021. EPIC, with a little help from their friends, will prepare an epicurean delight in the morning and will be ready to "car hop" the take-out lunches to awaiting customers in the North church parking lot.

To truly make this a church wide mission event, we are asking our customers, who might be willing, to pick up an additional lunch and deliver it to a Furthest Pew (home-bound) church member that resides near them, thus receiving the blessing of Double Happiness!

For this event to work, we need everyone who would like to take advantage of a FREE, scrumptious meal, to please contact the Chang's as soon as possible so that we might know how much food to prepare. This detail is essential to ensure a successful event!
