MISSION AND VISION

It is the practice of The Second Presbyterian Church to follow the admonition of I Corinthians 14:40 and to "Let all things be done decently and in order."

In an effort to full fill such a practice The Session of Second Presbyterian Church has authorized a Special Operations Committee to create the following Policy and Procedure Manual. The policy and procedures manual will dictate clearly how the church is supposed to operate. This manual has been created following the guidelines of Holy Scripture, the Book of Order and our own Church Mission Statement and By-Laws.

It is an endeavor to be an ongoing process to capture and clearly state how and why 'things' happen as they do at Second Presbyterian Church. As new issues arise additional policies and procedures will be created, approved by The Session and added to this manual.

Mission Statement

Second Presbyterian Church is a vital worshipping community of faith guided by the good news proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Our multigenerational, multicultural, and bilingual community exemplifies the diversity of God's creation unified by God's hope and love. Our on-going mission is to cultivate that hope and love for all generations by living and sharing it with the world.

Vision and Values

Second Presbyterian Church, located on the corner of Lomas and Edith, in Martineztown, is a flourishing congregation in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Second Presbyterian, founded in 1889, draws membership from Albuquerque and surrounding communities. Our rich history drew upon mission to Spanish communities in northern New Mexico and southern Colorado.

Presently, our welcoming and diverse Church cherishes its traditions and continually adapts to embrace God's spirit.

Excellent worship and music, a commitment of ministry to all generations, along with extensive mission outreach, are hallmarks of our fellowship-based congregation.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC COMMITTEE

The Directory of Worship located in the Book of Order directs the elements of Christian worship. "In worship the church is to remember both its liberty in Christ and the biblical command to do all things in an orderly way." Therefore, the Worship and Music Committee of Second Presbyterian Church strives to follow the guidelines set forth in the Book of Order in its accountability to the Session.

A monthly newsletter exists, for most of the year, with the purpose of communicating matters of interest within the Church community. All members are encouraged to utilize this channel of communication. Church policy is to publish known birthdays in the newsletter unless the celebrant requests the date and/or month NOT to be published. This is to provide for some protection against identity theft. If you do NOT want your birth month/date to be published, please notify the LiveWire committee via email at livewire@secondpresabq.org or by notifying the Pastor or Office. Constant interaction among the Pastor, parishioners, elders, and deacons is necessary for effective communication among the congregation. Pictures of the Elders and Deacons are posted on the west wall just south of the door to the sanctuary for this purpose.

Many concerns that surface within the Church may be avoided if communication among members is practiced with the attitude that all Church business is important to someone.

Commissioners to the Presbytery will report, to the Congregation, on items of interest discussed at the most recent Presbytery meeting.

Committees are composed of people who are working full time, students, and also those that are retired. Because some members are retired does not always mean that they have more voluntary time available. Many personal obligations require the time and effort of these people as though they still are employed full time. Health issues, obviously, can affect anyone. The time of both full-time workers and retirees must be respected.

When one is busy and committed to a Church project that needs attention, it may cause a measure of anxiety because of time that needs to be set aside to work on said project. One sometimes feels that too great a deal of time will have to be set aside. If this is the case, a simple phone call or e-mail (takes only a few minutes) asking for help can save both anxiety and time. Others are usually willing to assist. If assistance cannot be obtained there is no need to feel guilty in realizing that maybe the project should be postponed for a period of time or perhaps the project should be dropped. We are a friendly congregation and most people understand that we are not always able to attend to a project in a timely manner.

Good and open communication between the Church administration, the Congregation, and committee members, may mitigate many uncertainties that can develop.

Session committee chairpersons and members are available to the congregation for the purpose of addressing concerns or matters of interest that may develop within the church. They may be contacted for answers to questions appropriate to particular matters of interest that may develop.

A Church directory has been developed containing names, address, phone numbers, and (in some cases) E-mail addresses. Pictures of most members are included in the directory.

Policies Related To Funerals

Funeral and Memorial Service Guidelines of The Second Presbyterian Church
About a Presbyterian Memorial or Funeral Service

A Presbyterian funeral or memorial service is first and foremost a worship service that celebrates the resurrection of our Lord. It also includes a celebration of life and Christian witness of the deceased.

MEMORIAL SERVICE: A memorial service occurs after the committal or interment of cremains (ashes) at a mausoleum or in a grave. Therefore, there is no casket or urn at the service. This can be a very helpful in that the hardest part, the final good-bye, happens first and is then followed by the comfort of the worship service. A brief graveside service of Scripture and prayer is held for the family. Then the family and congregation gather for worship in the church sanctuary or other chapel.

FUNERAL SERVICE: A funeral service occurs before the interment. In this case, the casket or urn is present in the sanctuary. Presbyterian funeral practices reflect our faith and focus on God. For this reason, when the casket is present in the sanctuary, it will remain closed during the service. Our preference is that it remains closed while in the church. Viewing is best done at the funeral home. However, in consultation with the pastor, it may be open prior to the service and then closed for the final time before the service begins. This way, the worshipers may center their thoughts on God rather than the physical remains of the deceased.

SPECIAL MUSIC: Ordinarily, the music in either a funeral or memorial service will be of a religious nature with prior approval by the church music director. If there are other songs that have been important to the deceased or remind the family of the deceased, it is possible in consultation with the pastor to have them played during or at the end of the service.

FINAL DISPOSAL OF A PERSON'S BODY: Since the resurrection of the body is a certain hope for all who put their trust in Jesus Christ, there is no reason to reject methods of disposal of the body other than by burial. Therefore, cremation or donation of the body, or parts of the body, for medical use or research are appropriate possibilities for Christians who desire to do so.

Funeral Practices and Information

Resurrection is the central belief of the Christian Faith. The Lord has made a place for us when we die. When someone dies, we grieve because the person is not with us any longer. Even, so, as people of faith, we are sustained by the Holy Spirit and the community of faith.

During this emotional time, it is difficult to make plans and decisions. It is the goal of the Second Presbyterian Church to encourage all members to plan ahead for this time. This is a way of showing love for family members, and friends and helps them know your wishes after you are gone. It is also of great assistance to your pastor.

While preplanning is not a requirement in the Presbyterian Church, we recommend that persons take the time to think about and write down the details of their funeral wishes and how they can make a statement of your Christian faith.

What A Member Can Expect From Second Presbyterian Church!

SERVICE: Significantly moments in a Christian's life from baptism to burial typically take place as part of worship directed toward God, who created us, loves us and receives us. Members are encouraged to have their memorial or funeral service in the church sanctuary.

The church will provide ushers for the service, if it is held in the sanctuary. We will also arrange for an organist/pianist for the service. Ordinarily, the church choir will be available to provide music, if desired.

The church office will provide a printed order of worship. Often times, if the family desires, a funeral home will provide a 'memory' brochure with the deceased's obituary which can be placed in the printed order of worship. We are unable to project a video of the deceased's life in the sanctuary however we can do so in the multi-purpose room, during a meal or reception.

For a member of Second Presbyterian Church there is no fee for having the service in the sanctuary or a reception following in the multi-purpose room. For non-members an honorarium fee of $200.00 for the pastor and $150.00 for the musician is required.

If a member wishes to have a meal, please make arrangements with the Church in advance. Perhaps the member may provide the main dish (if able) and request a pot-luck from the membership for the remainder.

PASTOR: Ordinarily the senior pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church will officiate at any service in our church. If the family desires that a minister from another church conduct the service, please consult with the pastor of The Second Presbyterian Church prior to making any arrangements, so that the pastor may extend an invitation on behalf of our church. He or she may share responsibilities with the pastor of The Second Presbyterian Church or, in agreement with our pastor, may officiate for the entire service.

PASTORAL CARE: Prior to a member's death, the pastor and our deacons will be available to provide compassionate care for the person who is ill and his or her family. Hospitals will not give information regarding a patient, therefore it is incumbent upon friends or family members to contact the pastor when a loved one is hospitalized and provide the hospital name and room number. Our session and individual members will also stand ready to help in other ways, with visits, cards and meals.

MEMORIAL GIFTS: If memorial gifts are made to the church, those who do so will receive a letter of acknowledgement and appreciate on from our church. The family will receive notification as well.

WHEN DEATH COMES

Call the pastor immediately. In the ensuing days, your pastor will be sharing the experience and responsibility with you in many ways. Pastoral guidance can be most useful in easing your burden, assisting in decisions and making this time holy and significant. You may invite the pastor or a deacon to accompany you when you meet the funeral director.

Call the funeral director to take charge of those preparations and arrangements-for which he or she is responsible. If your loved one died in a hospital, the hospital personnel may make this call for you. Protocol is different with hospice. Be sure to follow their instructions, but remember to include the pastor in those first calls.

Policies Related To Weddings

Wedding Guidelines of the Second Presbyterian Church

The Christian marriage ceremony is a service of worship before God. We offer the following guidelines for Second Presbyterian Church Congregation and others who wish to be married in the church. It is our joy to celebrate and to participate as witness to the Wedding. Covenant made among a couple and God. With advance approval of the Session, Commission may be celebrated. Other clergy who are invited to participate will be invited by the Pastor of Second Presbyterian Church.

It is advisable to schedule a wedding and rehearsal at least three months in advance. A one-month notice is the minimum. The Pastor and Church Secretary will assist in the scheduling. A Second Presbyterian Church representative will be available to clarify questions on use of the church if desired.

Premarital sessions will take place between the couple and the pastor for counseling, planning and rehearsal. The Pastor will refer the couple to Samaritan Counseling Services. The fee for their services is approximately $225.00.

A wedding is a worship service in praise of God. Guests are invited to participate through singing, praying, and providing leadership during the service.

Music for the wedding may be of various styles. It should direct attention to God. In consultation with the couple, our Music Director ordinarily will guide the selection and playing of pre-service music and hymns.

Involvement by the couple in the planning and content of the wedding service is essential.

The use of The Second Presbyterian Church building is encouraged for members and available for non-members. Receptions may be held in the Multi-Purpose Room (see policy on Use of Multi-Purpose Room-Second Presbyterian Church). Some general guideless for weddings:

- Appropriate paraments and banners are available.

USHER TASKS

If for any reason you cannot serve on the scheduled Sunday, call Usher Coordinator.
Arrive 30 minutes before service begins.

Before worship

Check the pews for visitor cards and hymnals in each rack.
Greet each person by name, if you know it.
Give a bulletin to each person, including school age children.
For visitors, ask if there is anything they would like to know. Assist with seating arrangements.

Seating

If there are infants or toddlers with visitors, inform them about the cry room for children (which has a speaker to hear the service). Do not insist they use it.
Persons in wheel chairs are seated against the back wall of the sanctuary.
Hearing devices are available upon request.
Do not seat latecomers during prayers or reading of the scripture.

During worship

Beginning the service: Candle lighters are located in the cry room at the back of the sanctuary. Candles on the Table are lit when the music, usually the chimes, begins. (if there are acolytes, they will do this). The candle lighter should be lit and the flame adjusted before usher/acolyte processes to the front. This symbolizes the light of Christ coming into our worship space. The flame is snuffed at the Table as soon as the flame on the wick is stable and the usher/acolyte returns with the candle to the back of the sanctuary.

Visitors: When visitors are introduced at the beginning of worship, users with the help of youth, including acolytes, will deliver a gift to each visitor.

Offering: Two plates or baskets are either on the Communion Table or beside it (on Communion Sunday). Ushers come forward during the last verse of the hymn preceding the offering and wait while clergy delivers a scriptural call for the offering. Offering is received from front to back. Each usher begins in their respective aisle and receives the offering from the entire side section and alternate rows of the center section. The offering is then returned to the front of the church as the doxology is sung. Ushers hand the plates to the clergy and wait while the offertory prayer is given. Ushers return to their seats.

At the end of the service: During the last verse of the last hymn, usher/acolyte comes forward carrying snuffer/candle lighter, lights the flame from the lit candles, snuffs the candles and walks to the back of the worship space before the candle lighter is snuffed. This symbolizes the light of Chris going from worship into the world. It is best if the light is not snuffed until acolyte/usher is out of the congregation's view.

After worship

Pick up bulletins from pews or provided baskets and take to the office for re-cycling. Pick communion glasses and other litter and put in waste basket. These are not re-cycled. Return hymnals to racks.

Worship Leadership Guide (Lay Leader)

Second Presbyterian Church/Albuquerque, NM

1. Meet with the Pastor in advance of the Sunday morning worship service. Establish what you will be reading.
 - Normally the lay leader is responsible for:
 - Greeting the Congregation
 - The Prayer of the Day (choose either language)
 - Call to Confession (choose either language)
 - Prayer of Confession
 - Prayer for illumination (either language)
 - The first scripture reading
 - Greeting members after the service as they exit
2. Read through the liturgy and scripture text.

From the Book of Order:

[W-1.1002a] "The Spirit of God quickens people to an awareness of God's grace and claim upon their lives. The Spirit moves them to respond by naming and calling upon God by remembering and proclaiming God's acts of self-revelation in word deed, and by committing their lives to God's reign in the world."

[W-1.4003] In Jesus Christ, the church is a royal priesthood in which worship is the work of everyone. The people of God are called to participate in the common ministry of worship. No one shall be excluded from participation of leadership in public worship in the Lord's house on the grounds of race, color, class, age, sex or handicapping condition. Some, by gifts and training, may be called to particular acts of leadership in worship. It is appropriate to encourage members and ordained officers with such abilities to assist in leading worship.

Tips to worship leadership:

1. Fear of public speaking is usually no. 1 on the list. Give stress to the Spirit. If you make a mistake, let it go-everyone else will---including God.
2. Practice makes perfect.
3. Think collectively, not individually (usher in the focus for the people of God). Think in "us" not "I".
4. Find ways to enhance the worship experience. For liturgy in unison, always invite others to join you. Invite people to stand when appropriate. Strive for quality, not perfection. If you feel comfortable, create a brief introduction to the text. Using commentary or other resources, Provide two to three sentences to orient listeners to the text which you will be reading. Consult with the Pastor prior to the service with any questions you may have.

PREPARING AND SERVING COMMUNION

And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them saying: "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

"This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you" Luke 22:19-22

From the Book of Order: Directory of Worship:

[W-3.3609]: When the Lord's Supper is celebrated, the Table should be prepared and the elements provided to be placed on the Table before worship begins or during the gathering of the tithes and offerings.

[W-3.3610]: The Bread: Bread common to the culture of the community should be provided to be broken by the one who presides. The use of the one bread expresses the unity of the body of Christ. Bread for the congregation may be broken from the same loaf or prepared in some manner for distribution.

[W-3.3611]: The Cup: A cup and pitcher may be provided for the one who presides to use in presenting the Cup. The use of a common cup expresses the communal nature of the Sacrament and reflects the consistent New Testament reference to a single cup. The manner of distribution used by the particular community of faith may involve the provision of one cup or a number of cups suitably prepared for the people.

The Session is to determine what form of the fruit of the vine is to be used. In making this decision, the Session should be informed by the local customs and concerns for health and the conscience of members of the congregation. Whenever wine is used, unfermented grape juice should always be clearly identified and served as an alternative for those who prefer it.

[W-3.3616-c]: A common cup may be offered to all who wish to partake of it; several cups may be offered and shared/ or individual cups may be prepared for distribution.

Rather than drink from a common cup, communicants may dip the broken bread into the cup (this is referred to as intinction).

[W-3.3616-d]: The Serving: The bread and cup may be served by ordained officers of the church, or by other church members on invitation of the Session or authorizing governing body.

- A. The yearly Communion schedule is determined and approved by Session and communicated to the Board of Deacons.
- B. The Board of Deacons schedules and notifies the nine (9) servers and those preparing the elements at least one week in advance. The Chair/Co-chair assures that the bread and wine/juice are on hand.
- C. Preparation and placing of the elements on the Communion Table should be completed no later than 10:15 A.M.
- D. The Deacon in charge will meet with the servers to explain the "serving diagram" and respond to any questions.

- E. Servers come forward at the designated time and take their place in the front middle pew in preparation for serving the People of God.
- F. Following the worship service, the trays are returned to the kitchen where the remaining full cups are counted and subtracted from the total served. The number is then entered into the Communion serving log.

[W-3.3619]: When the service is ended, the communion elements shall be removed from the Table and used and disposed of in a manner which is approved by the session, and which is consistent with the Reformed understanding of the Sacrament and the principles of good stewardship.

COMMITTEE PROJECT GUIDELINES

GUIDELINE SUGGESTIONS FOR A NEW COMMITTEE CHAIRPERSON OR WHEN PLANNING A CHURCH COMMITTEE PROJECT

These suggestions are for anyone of the Session committees whenever a Church project is in the planning stage. They include key components in formulating a strategic plan. They may be especially useful for a new committee chairperson with limited Church committee experience.

DETERMINE WHAT RESOURCES (financial, personnel, supplies, equipment, etc.) ARE AVAILABLE TO CARRY OUT THE DUTIES OF THIS COMMITTEE.

- Make contact with the previous chairperson, past chairpersons, and Pastor for guidance and information.
- Check the Church's Policy and Procedures manual for printed information.
- Learn to use the Church copy machine and designated computer(s).
- Research copies of previous meeting minutes that you can refer to for guidance.

DETERMINE WHAT ARE RECOGNIZED STRENGTHS, WEAKNESSES, OPPORTUNITIES AND THREATS THAT MAY SURFACE FOR THIS COMMITTEE (S.W.O.T.)

- Capitalize on the strengths that may be immediately obvious to you. Is there motivation and commitment within the committee? There may not be weaknesses, but if there are, be certain to address them as soon as possible.
- Think about the opportunities that may present themselves for this committee to address. Discuss and brainstorm with your committee members for possible action.

What could possibly threaten the success of this committee? This may seem harsh, but this is known as a "critical risks and solutions" component in a strategic plan.

SET A GOAL OR GOALS

Are there goals that were set by the previous committee that currently need attention?

- One or more goals may be set for this committee. They may be either short range, long range, or both.
- Setting goals may clarify one's perspective as to the true purpose of the committee's function within the Church.

ACTION PLANS

- Determine what step(s) will be taken to achieve the above stated goals.
- Plan periodic reviews of the step(s) to determine if revision is necessary.

DESIRED OUTCOME

- Determine a yardstick for measuring the accomplishment of the above stated goal(s).
- Set deadlines for each goal or goals.

Special assignments may include caring for members in need and collecting and disbursement of funds to specific persons or causes. A Commissioned Ruling elder may be commissioned by the Presbytery for limited pastoral service as assigned. A schedule is prepared by the Worship Committee in coordination with the Board of Deacons and ultimately authorized by the Session.
- At Second Church, the preparation of the elements (bread and wine/juice) and assignment of servers has been under the direction of the Deacons. Special occasions, i.e., World Communion Sunday, the Worship Committee may request a variety of breads and possibly special setting of the Table. Again, coordination with the Deacons is especially important.
- Serving of the elements may be done in a variety of ways: Trays of wine and bread may be distributed by the servers or by intinction (taking the bread and dipping into the wine/juice).
